

and his charred remains found. His neck had been severed, and to make his death sure he is supposed to have been to the place before lying down.

nothing definite is known of the antecedents, but he is believed to be a habitual relative, who eccentric habits kept him from friends in the community.

Getting an Education. "We," said his mother, "had nothing new at school today. We did not learn new."

found a new way of getting not for an hour by snuffing me now."

Known for Better Values

Mail Orders

Destination May be Washington.

ILLA NEAR BORDER.

Destination May be Washington.

Chief Wants to Disavow Formally to Mr. Wilson Reports of Massacres.

United States Soldiers on the Alert to Capture the Famous Outlaw.

1st Band Under Salinas is Hunted in a Battle South of Matamoros.

1st Band Under Salinas is within six miles of the United States border on route to Matamoros, where he will seek an audience with President Wilson, according to a message received tonight from Gabriel Gavira, commandant there, who transmitted the report through Andreas Garcia, Mexican commanding United States troops on the border.

Gavira's advice stated that he would seek to exonerate himself in connection with the Matamoros massacre, in which 200 foreigners were killed last month. He would further endeavor to have President Wilson's full reference to the massacre before he can return to Palma, Chihuahua, tonight. The reported there are no indications of Villa and his forces advancing from the districts of Matamoros and west of there.

Patrols of the Seventh, Tenth and Thirteenth United States cavalry

(Continued on Fifth Page.)

THE WORLD'S NEWS IN TODAY'S TIMES.

Foremost Events of Yesterday: (1) Mexico. (2) India. (3) Congress and the Submarine Issue. (4) Food Crisis. (5) Rains in the North. (6) Fatal Fire in El Paso. (7) Baker Appointment.

INDEX.

TELEGRAPH NEWS. Word Consult with Wilson. Letter to Cabinet. Message to Our Navy. Message to Pacific Slope. Word to All the Fleet. Report: City in Brief.

PICTORIAL CITY SHEET. Annual Bachelors' Ball. News of the Year. News for Fair Trip. News for Law Assured. News for Post Office: Verse. News of the Countries. News of the Cities. News from Scotland. News: Financial Summary. News Markets: Shipping Notes. News Services: City Hall: Courts.

FIELD OF SPORTS. News from Wales. News from Scotland. News from Ireland. News from the Playhouse.

SUMMARY.

WIND. Clear. Wind at 5 p.m., velocity 6 miles. Thermometer, 65 deg.; lowest, 45 deg. Fair and warmer Tuesday. Weather report see last page.

CITY. With the bachelors' word, we secured a brilliant climate. Board of Education was urged to the services of a psychologist to make a fair deal for men.

Food Control Engineer

an estimate of the apportionment of $3,600,000 food.

Practitioners started in the fight against the State, allying it is unconstitutional.

Secularly topped off a new income that has been given by the De Baker heirs.

and a sister, alleging slanders of a quarrel over the mother's estate.

Complaints were filed to support the city's offer of a new home.

CALIFORNIA. Long meeting, had a hot time to decide out the harbor. Studies for coastwise ship movement at the harbor.

educational authorities

a mystery in the school and meeting in a church on the Morro Bay area.

SLOPES. Earth slides in the Western Pacific is posting.

It is a mistake to jump at the wrong conclusion that all or most news is to be found on the first page. Commit the Index and the Summary, then read the entire paper.

Times

1916

LOS ANGELES

Liberty Under Law—Equal Rights—True Industrial Freedoms

Delivered to All Hotels and on Railway Trains to Subscribers on Streets and News Stands, 2 Cents

PRICE 2½ CENTS

Differences.

WHY PAGE WILL QUIT

Unable to Follow President.

Brother of the Ambassador to St. James will Retire from Congress.

Kitchin, Democratic Floor Leader in House, May Take a Similar Stand.

Armed-ship Controversy Seems to Have Hopelessly Divided the Party.

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

WASHINGTON, March 6.—In a statement, in which he assured that the loan of $500,000,000 to the allies had destroyed the semblance of neutrality of the United States, Representative Robert N.

Page, a North Carolina Democrat, brother of the Ambassador to the court of St. James, announced tonight that he would retire from public life because he could not follow the former policy of the administration.

KITCHIN MAY ALSO QUIT.

Mr. Kitchin, Democratic leader,

may take a similar stand.

Without opposition within his party in North Carolina, Mr. Page in an open letter to his constituents declared his opposition to the administration.

Facing a vote on the armed-ship issue, on which the President insists, Mr. Page says that by this vote he runs the risk of "staining my hands with the blood of my countrymen."

AS TO THE LOAN.

Referring to the loan to the allies,

the brother of the American Ambassador to Great Britain says:

"Jesus Christ never uttered a more profound truth than when He declared: 'Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.'

The loan of $500,000,000 to England by American capitalists, to say nothing of the profits of munitions manufacturers, has destroyed the semblance even of neutrality in the United States and will probably lead into a settlement of the controversy

in this country in press dispatches.

It was authoritatively stated that

that none of the instructions in any

of the four sets of instructions

given to the British merchant-

men, including those dated October

1915, which recently were made public

by the British government and sent

to this country in press dispatches.

It was authoritatively stated that the British government will contend

that none of the instructions in any

of the four sets of instructions

given to the British merchant-

men, including those dated October

1915, which recently were made public

by the British government and sent

to this country in press dispatches.

It was authoritatively stated that

the British government will contend

that none of the instructions in any

of the four sets of instructions

given to the British merchant-

men, including those dated October

1915, which recently were made public

by the British government and sent

to this country in press dispatches.

It was authoritatively stated that

the British government will contend

that none of the instructions in any

of the four sets of instructions

given to the British merchant-

men, including those dated October

1915, which recently were made public

by the British government and sent

to this country in press dispatches.

It was authoritatively stated that

the British government will contend

that none of the instructions in any

of the four sets of instructions

given to the British merchant-

men, including those dated October

1915, which recently were made public

by the British government and sent

to this country in press dispatches.

It was authoritatively stated that

the British government will contend

that none of the instructions in any

of the four sets of instructions

given to the British merchant-

men, including those dated October

1915, which recently were made public

by the British government and sent

to this country in press dispatches.

It was authoritatively stated that

the British government will contend

that none of the instructions in any

of the four sets of instructions

given to the British merchant-

men, including those dated October

1915, which recently were made public

by the British government and sent

to this country in press dispatches.

It was authoritatively stated that

the British government will contend

that none of the instructions in any

of the four sets of instructions

given to the British merchant-

men, including those dated October

1915, which recently were made public

by the British government and sent

to this country in press dispatches.

It was authoritatively stated that

the British government will contend

that none of the instructions in any

of the four sets of instructions

given to the British merchant-

men, including those dated October

1915, which recently were made public

by the British government and sent to this country in press dispatches.

Choice.
PICKS DREAMER FOR CABINET.

Wilson Names Newton D. Baker of Ohio War Secretary.

Nominee was Once a Pupil of President in Baltimore.

View that the Democrats are a Failure Credited to Him.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.] WASHINGTON, March 6.—Newton D. Baker, former Mayor of Cleveland, has been selected by President Wilson for Secretary of War. His nomination will go to the Senate tomorrow and administration leaders expect quick confirmation so the new Secretary may take active charge of the War Department's plans for army mobilization and reorganization.

Mr. Baker is a lawyer and, as a leader among Ohio Democrats, has been a warm supporter of the Wilson policies since the preconvention campaign in 1912. He was a close personal friend of Mr. Wilson since the time when the latter was a lawyer at John H. Hobson's Union, and was offered the post of Secretary of the Interior in the original Wilson Cabinet. Mr. Baker came to be a "dreamer of dreams" and it has not been so long ago that he called the Democratic party "dismal failure."

An offer of the war secretaryship was made to Mr. Baker by telegraph several days ago, after the President had spent more than three weeks carefully going over a long list of names suggested to him by Senator Garrison. Mr. Baker accepted and, upon being notified today that he would be nominated at once, telephoned that he would be in Washington Tuesday.

BAKER'S PROGRAMME, BY S. M. COOPER (EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH). CLEVELAND, Jan. 6.—Fewer preparations and silence from the programme mapped out by Newton D. Baker, former Mayor of Cleveland, who has accepted President Wilson's offer of the position of Secretary of War, than was expected. While Baker, heretofore, was claimed as a peace-at-any-price advocate, he has always been a staunch supporter of President Wilson, and it is expected will be in entire sympathy with Wilson's programme.

"I have always been a peace advocate," he said today. "I believe in peace and in the proper enforcement of the laws—of peace by force if necessary." "Does that amount to a belief in full and adequate preparedness?" he was asked.

"I shall not draw an inference as to what it means; you may if you wish; I have no statement to make as to the course I shall take nor as to the duties of the Secretary of War. I know nothing about the office."

A PEACEFUL MAN.

Baker is still a member of a number of peace societies, his wife, "will continue to be a member of the permanent peace must come through course of law and not violence or force," he said. "I have long been a 'dreamer of dreams' man, but I believe in the President's policy."

"I must decline to discuss conscription, the State militia, and the army. My appointment is not yet confirmed. It will be decided whether they may object to me for some other reason. You know I spoke in favor of the appointment of Louis D. Brandeis to the Supreme Court."

HIS PARTY A FAILURE.

Baker recently gained considerable fame as a "dreamer of dreams" referred to Senator Borland of Ohio that some thing must be done to save the Democratic party, which is a dismal failure. When asked today if he still thinks the party a failure he merely laughed and declined to comment.

Tom Johnson, who was born in Martinsburg, W. Va., December 12, 1871, has had a skyrocket career. He was graduated from Johns Hopkins and Washington-Lee, and practiced law in Martinsburg until he became secretary to former Postmaster-General James A. Farwell in 1897. In 1901 he became secretary to the late Mayor, Tom Johnson, whom he made him one of his lieutenants. He was elected City Solicitor three terms and was Mayor two terms. His fight to carry out Tom Johnson's ideas on the public service in Cleveland. He often said he was a "dreamer of dreams" in connection with his plans for the city.

Baker's struggle upwards has been characterized chiefly by a personal one that was indomitable. He has stood shoulder to shoulder with Johnson in the seven years' traction war.

THE SAME OLD STORY.

Advertising in "The Times" Continues to Exceed that of Every Other Local Newspaper.

The volume of advertising printed in The Times last Sunday, compared with the corresponding Sunday of 1915, shows a splendid gain of 529 inches.

The Times, as usual, topped both the second and third local morning newspapers put together in the quantity of advertising printed on the same day by 157 inches.

In total advertising Sunday, The Times led the second morning newspaper 3451 inches and the third morning newspaper 5980 inches.

In classified, or "liner," advertising alone The Times of Sunday led its nearest local contemporary 1501 inches and the second nearest contemporary 2864 inches; the combined volume of the second and third papers being 799 inches less than the total printed in The Times alone.

In the separate number of "want ads" printed Sunday, The Times exceeded the second newspaper by 2772, the third newspaper by 764 and the second and third papers combined by 2610.

Quantity and quality of circulation considered, The Times gives its advertisers far more for their money than any other paper in Los Angeles, and in fact more than any other paper printed in the United States. The fact that The Times always leads all local competitors in its advertising patronage, as well as the further fact that it regularly prints more advertising than any other daily paper in the world, proves that its space at current rates is always a good investment to the advertiser who has something to sell at a reasonable price.

Advertising for Sunday, March 6, 1916.

Total advertising.	Classified advertising.	Separate want ads.
First, The Times ..... 10,274	1,565	2,288
Second newspaper ..... 6,822	2,065	4,454
Third newspaper ..... 2,394	703	1,163

"When in doubt as to which of two mediums to use choose the one with the greatest amount of qualified advertising." The above sound and sane advice appeared in large type in the San Francisco Examiner, Sunday, March 6, 1916.

Divided.
BERLIN'S VIEW ON GORE VOTE.

German Press not a Unit as to Its Meaning.

Few Papers Believe Wilson is Stronger than Ever.

Others See a Sharp Rebuke to the Anglophiles.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.] BERLIN, March 6 (via London).—The inadequate news service received in Germany concerning the action of the United States Senate with regard to the resolution of Senator Gore, warning Americans off of armed merchantmen, makes it difficult for even persons who understand the American governmental system to form an intelligent conclusion regarding the meaning of the vote. Hence, the German press is still more in the dark and finds it difficult to guess what the whole of the means.

The Lokal Anzeiger thinks that affairs remain as before the vote was taken and that President Wilson neither succeeded in getting approval of his course, nor did his opponents manage to secure a vote of disapproval of his course, so the opinion of the newspaper is that the Senate said neither yes nor no, but that it postponed taking a stand and left itself with a free hand to decide the question. The Frankfurter Zeitung, however, thinks that the German press is still more in the dark and finds it difficult to guess what the whole of the means.

The Frankfurter Zeitung thinks that the German press is still more in the dark and finds it difficult to guess what the whole of the means.

MORE OPTIMISTIC.

Die Post takes a more optimistic view. It says that if Senator Gore and his friends should continue working so successfully to impress the President, a vote in favor of the resolution may be expected soon.

"As yet," says Die Post, "it is too early to predict trouble, but it is satisfying to see that Senator Gore has brought sharp defeat to the Anglophiles."

The Tagliche Rundschau, deeply pessimistic, says:

"The tabling of the resolution gives President Wilson all he needs: freedom and time. He will, therefore, be very satisfied with his defeat, which perhaps he had ordered. He is not hindered in his future decisions by any formal Senate decision and hence can put aside his apprehensions since Senator Louis, who alone under the American Constitution could oppose him, is his creature and carries out President Wilson's orders with pleasure."

The Frankfurter Zeitung finds in the Senate's action a victory of the question but declares that in any event the vote cannot be looked upon as a victory for President Wilson.

GERMAN FLEET SIGHTED IN THE NORTH SEA.

IN THE NORTH SEA.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.] WASHINGTON, March 7, 2:35 a.m.—A fleet of twenty-four German ships, of which one was a battleship, was sighted in the North Sea, according to a dispatch to the Central News from Vilseland, North Poland. The vessels, some of which were approaching from the northeast and later disappeared northward.

CUSTOMS LAW UPHELD.

Court Decided it Applies to Parcels Post Goods Entering Country.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.] PHILADELPHIA, March 6.—Judge Buffington in the United States Court of Appeals here today held that the act of Congress of 1907 relating to the enforcement of undervalued packages entering the United States applies to the parcel post as well as to the customhouse. The articles involved in the suit decided today were packages of dental instruments sent by parcel post from Germany to Philadelphia.

Mr. Brandeis appeared for the liquor interests and opposed pending legislation on the sweeping statements he made about the liquor traffic in his arguments. Particular attention was directed certain statements of the liquor dealers' association of the New England Brewers' Association before the Massachusetts Legislature.

Senator Clinton charged that this incident occurred twenty-five years ago and that there was quite a difference between the public attitude toward the liquor question then and today. Dr. Cannon insisted, however, that Mr. Brandeis' public utterances were undervalued through false invoices mailed with the packages and that this effort to introduce the goods into the commerce of the United States was contrary to an amendment. Rubins contended that the law was only applicable to imports through the customhouse.

Judge Buffington pointed out in his decision that the law makes it an offense to attempt to import any merchandise when it is sent to the customhouse or by parcel post.

CONSUL-GENERAL ARNOLD DEAD.

American Representative at Cairo Passed Away in Lisbon.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.] WASHINGTON, March 6.—Olney Arnold, American diplomatic agent and Consul-General at Cairo, Egypt, died yesterday in a hospital in Lisbon, Portugal. Advice to the State Department there told of his death but did not state the cause.

Mr. Arnold was granted leave of absence recently by the State Department and had been in the United States. His home was in Providence, R. I. He had been in the government service since September, 1912. He was 54 years old.

At the time Mr. Arnold's departure from Cairo his health was under investigation on charges made by American residents in Cairo, which included unusual utterances. It was reported then that he was in ill health.

RE-ARGUE TARIFF CLAUSE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.] WASHINGTON, March 6.—The case involving the intercession and enforceability of the clause in the tariff act allowing a 5 per cent surcharge on imports in American ships were today ordered by the Supreme Court to be argued a second time.

THE SAME OLD STORY.

Advertising in "The Times" Continues to Exceed that of Every Other Local Newspaper.

The volume of advertising printed in The Times last Sunday, compared with the corresponding Sunday of 1915, shows a splendid gain of 529 inches.

The Times, as usual, topped both the second and third local morning newspapers put together in the quantity of advertising printed on the same day by 157 inches.

In total advertising Sunday, The Times led the second morning newspaper 3451 inches and the third morning newspaper 5980 inches.

In classified, or "liner," advertising alone The Times of Sunday led its nearest local contemporary 1501 inches and the second nearest contemporary 2864 inches; the combined volume of the second and third papers being 799 inches less than the total printed in The Times alone.

In the separate number of "want ads" printed Sunday, The Times exceeded the second newspaper by 2772, the third newspaper by 764 and the second and third papers combined by 2610.

Quantity and quality of circulation considered, The Times gives its advertisers far more for their money than any other paper in Los Angeles, and in fact more than any other paper printed in the United States. The fact that The Times always leads all local competitors in its advertising patronage, as well as the further fact that it regularly prints more advertising than any other daily paper in the world, proves that its space at current rates is always a good investment to the advertiser who has something to sell at a reasonable price.

Advertising for Sunday, March 6, 1916.

Total advertising.	Classified advertising.	Separate want ads.
First, The Times ..... 10,274	1,565	2,288
Second newspaper ..... 6,822	2,065	4,454
Third newspaper ..... 2,394	703	1,163

"When in doubt as to which of two mediums to use choose the one with the greatest amount of qualified advertising." The above sound and sane advice appeared in large type in the San Francisco Examiner, Sunday, March 6, 1916.

FRANCIS CONFIRMED AS AMBASSADOR.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.] WASHINGTON, March 6.—President Wilson's nomination of David R. Francis of Missouri, to be Ambassador to Russia, was confirmed today by the Senate a few hours after it had been received from the White House. At the same time Joseph H. Shee, of Indiana, was confirmed as Ambassador to Chile.

Mr. Francis, who served as Secretary of the Interior under President Cleveland, will succeed George T. Squier, of Wisconsin. Mr. Squier recently resigned, saying the Russian climate was undermining his health. The ambassadorship is considered particularly important by President Wilson, because of the additional duties it places upon the Embassy by the war, including care of the interests of the central powers.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The post of Ambassador to Chile was made vacant by the resignation of Henry Frith Fletcher to become Ambassador to Mexico.

The Times Free Information Bureau
619 South Spring Street

THE TIMES FREE INFORMATION AND RESORT BUREAU is for the accommodation and benefit of persons seeking interesting routes of travel, desirable hotels and rest, recreation and recreation at the seashore or in the mountains. Participants in the bureau are free to receive correspondence and to receive general public regarding rates and attractions of railroad and steamship lines, hotels and restaurants, etc. Printed descriptive circulars and trip-souvenir literature are kept on hand for inspection, distribution. Persons can obtain this in a few minutes without the delay incident to writing for it, all the information necessary for a safe and enjoyable vacation. This service is absolutely free. Literature also may be obtained at the New Times Building, 619 South Spring Street. PERSONS CONTEMPLATING VISITING LOS ANGELES ARE PRIVILEGED TO HAVE THEIR MAIL ADDRESSED TO THE BUREAU.

Resorts

ARLINGTON HOTEL
SANTA BARBARA

An absolutely fireproof Hotel—All Outside Rooms, affording plenty of light and air—Headquarters for Tourists from all parts of the world. Private Lavatories in connection with all rooms. Ideal climate the year round. Automobile road is now perfect. 3½ hours' run Los Angeles to Santa Barbara. Unexcelled facilities for care of automobiles in hotel grounds.

E. P. DUNN, Lessee.

The Only Large Resort Hotel in Santa Barbara Having Golf Grounds.

American Plan: Rates $15 per week and up

Special Rates to Permanent Guests.

Table d'hoile Dinner, One Dollar.

Music and Dancing Wednesday and Saturday Evenings.

Phone or call today for illustrated folder containing full particulars.

Phones: 60745, East 2847.

Hempel's Pierpoint Inn

PHONE SUNSET 175

WHERE THE MOUNTAINS MEET THE SEA

ON THE BEACH AT VENTURA

FAMOUS FOR "THAT MILK-FED CHICKEN"

Crown Jewel of the Americas. American Plan. Safety Motels. Southern California's Best Motel. Swimming, Boating, Motor Boating, Golf, Tennis, Hunting, Fishing, Etc.

72 miles to Los Angeles, 25 miles to Santa Barbara. Free Garage. Rates $1.50 per day, $21.00 per week up.

Hotel Virginia

CLOSE TO THE RHYTHMIC SURF.

CAMP BALDY

Finest Mountain Resort in Southern California—1800 feet above sea level, through camp. Best hotel service or furnished housekeeping tents. Trout fishing; tennis court; croquet ground; dancing, etc. Camp Baldy Co., Camp Baldy, Cal. Sunset 1-F-L.

LEVEN OAKS HOTEL, Monrovia

American Plan. High class family and tourist hotel. Foot of scenic Sierra Madre Mountains, 45 minutes from Los Angeles via P. R. Co. Special attention given to luncheon and dinner parties. Both phones, Monrovia Main 855.

Catalina Island CALIFORNIA'S MYSTIC ISLAND RESORT

Main St. Los Angeles

SANTA CATALINA ISLAND WILMINGTON TRANSPORTATION COMPANY (Standard Line) Steamer "WILMINGTON" (144 passengers) daily trips. For all reliable information call on BANNING COMPANY, Agents, 101 State Entrance, Pacific Electric Building, Sixth and Main Sts., Los Angeles, Cal. Phones: Main 88-10864.

San Francisco Hotels

For Sale... San Francisco Hotel

HEART OF BUSINESS SECTION.

Newly Rebuilt—Handsome Lobbies, Parlors and Writing Rooms. 140 Rooms—Lease from Three to Five Years. Furniture and Equipment for Sale.

Must be sold to settle estate—Money Maker—Terms if Desired. ADDRESS E. J. BOX 543, TIMES BRANCH OFFICE.

"NEAREST TO EVERYTHING"
Hotel Maxx, Powell St. at O'Farrell is San Francisco's best located and most popular hotel. Circulating ice water in every room. Commodore Lobby. Tourists' Headquarters. Excellent service. Rates $1.50 per day. Room $1.50 up. "House of Comfort." Management, Chester W. Kelley. A. M. Culver, L. A. Agent, 324 So. Spring.

Superb Routes of Travel

IT COSTS NO MORE TO GO EAST

Via San Francisco—Portland—Tacoma—Seattle—Spokane—Through the Scenic Northwest. Choice of Ocean or Rail Routes. To Portland, Seattle, Spokane, etc.

8.5 "Great Northern" and "Northern Pacific" Meals and Birth included at Sea.

TOUR GLACIER NATIONAL PARK

This Summer. Get illustrated booklet and full information from J. W. Phalon, T. F. & P. Agent, 606 South Spring Street. Telephones: Broadway 1816; Home 2584.

Steamships

Regular Service to MEXICO Twice a month

American-Hawaiian S. S. Company

All sailings between U. S. Atlantic and U. S. Pacific ports are cancelled until further notice.

608 Merchants' Natl. Bank Bldg. Phones: Home 60679, Main 5441

AUSTRALIA

NEW ZEALAND AND SOUTH SEAS via Tahiti and Rarotonga, connecting at Wellington, Sydney and Australia ports. Agents and freight service. San Francisco March 25, April 26, May 24 and 26. UNION & CO. OF NEW ZEALAND HIND, HOLPH & CO. General Agents. U. S. Marsh. & Co. Agents.

U. S. Merch. & Co. Agents.

THE CITY AND ENVIRONS.

EVENTS BRIEFLY TOLD.

Arrangements Reception.

The Glendale Garden Society will hold a reception for old and new members Thursday evening at the Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. J. H. Seaman has charge of the decorations and Mrs. H. C. Achley of the refreshments.

Faith and Prayer Cures.

G. Pandit, B. A. (London), will lecture on the subject "Christian Science, Faith and Prayer Cures" tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at No. 6125 Range View avenue. The lecture will be repeated at 3 o'clock, Friday, the 10th inst.

Pupils to Dance.

The post-graduate and the junior college pupils of the Polytechnic High School will hold a dancing party Friday evening in the hall of the Winona Lodge, Merton Club, the first get-together social of the new semester among the pupils.

Large Medical Classes.

With an increased student body and a large number of additional courses offered, the third trimester of the year opened yesterday at the college of physicians and surgeons. University of Southern California. Classroom instruction for the new period begins today in all departments.

Automobile Motor to Speak.

Hugh Chalmers, president of the Chalmers Motor Car Company of Detroit, will speak on "The Automobiles of the Future" at the meeting of the Advertising Club at noon today at the Clark. Frank Burt, former director of admissions and concessions of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, will also speak on "The Salesmanship of Joy."

Benefit Entertainment.

The East Jefferson Improvement Association will give a benefit entertainment this evening at the Cinema Theater at Central and Vernon avenues. The programme includes a surreal picture and some local talent. The management of the theater will give the association all money above the expenses.

Easter Stories.

Mrs. Sophia Lyon Fabs will tell Easter stories at the meeting of the Los Angeles Grade Union in Bunker Hill. Tonight at 8:45 o'clock. Miss Blanche Waugh will preside. At 11 o'clock Dr. James A. Francis will lecture on the subject, "Temperations of Jesus." All Sunday-school workers are invited.

Michigan Picnic.

Former residents of Michigan will hold their annual all-day basket picnic in Sycamore Grove, on Saturday the 11th inst. Fully 1500 are expected. The picnic will be a success. The sports is being arranged. Among the speakers will be Hon. Theodore D. Kanouse, the Tuskegee singers from Alabama will furnish a splendid programme, including old-time melodies and negro dialect readings. Coffee will be served free. Should it rain picnic will be postponed to the 13th inst.

Sixty New Citizens.

Sixty new citizens in possession of their naturalization papers will receive diplomas from the New Citizen Movement Association at the Los Angeles High School Wednesday evening, the 11th, and listen to an address by Bishop Brown on the musical talents to be given. The lecture will be under the auspices of the Women's Million Club of this city. The public is cordially invited to be present.

Bible School Concert.

Forty members of the Bible school of the First Methodist Church will give a concert this evening at the church, Sixth and Hill streets, to which all are invited. A programme, including works of Schumann and Beethoven, as well as several lighter pieces will be given under direction of Prof. Arthur M. Perry, a member of the faculty of the college of music, University of Southern California, who will be assisted by the organ of the church. W. F. Steele, at the organ, Dr. C. E. Locke and J. A. Haskett will speak.

Work's Effect on Paint.

J. G. White, manager of the Acme White Lead and Color Works, will tell of how paint has been affected by the present war" at the meeting of the Los Angeles division of the International Sales Managers' Association at the Clark tomorrow evening. This will be a debate. "Resolved that the best policy is to sell the prospect first before passing on his credit," in which F. H. French of the Sierra Paper Company and W. R. Forster of the Moreland Motor Truck Company, will argue. Robert H. Mann of the Chancery & Lyon Company, and George L. Morris of the Herringbone Metal Lath Company.

and the Worst is Yet to Come.

Is Your House a Home—or is it a collection of brick walls, carpets, chairs and tapestries? Make it a home by serving for breakfast Shredded Wheat, the food of health and strength. Being ready-cooked it is so easy to prepare a delicious meal with Shredded Wheat in a few minutes. Contains all the goodness of the whole wheat—better than porridges for children or grown-ups. Made at Niagara Falls, N. Y.

LENTEN SERVICES.

Daily Services Arranged for St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral.

Noonday services will be held in St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral during the entire season of Lent. The regular Lenten services will occur tomorrow, Ash Wednesday—and the noonday services will begin on Thursday. The first day will be conducted by Bishop Johnson. The services for the remaining portion of Lent will be conducted by the following clergymen:

First week: Dean MacCormack; second week: Rev. George D. Johnson, John Church; third week: Rev. C. Deuel, B.D.A.; fourth week: Rev. A. W. N. Porter, St. James Church; fifth week: Rev. L. E. Learned, D.D.; Padua; sixth week: Rev. Murray Harriet, D.D.; formerly Dean of the Cathedral of St. Mark.

The services for Ash Wednesday will be as follows: Holy communion at 7:30 o'clock in the morning and 10:30 o'clock. At the latter service Rev. Mr. Johnson will preside. There will be a sermon by Rev. Dr. MacCormack on "The Privileges of Disobedience." The evening service will be at 8 o'clock, with a sermon by Rev. Dr. MacCormack.

TWO YEARS' PROBATION.

Egg Rancher Promises to Curb His Follicose Passion.

William L. York, an egg rancher on Washington boulevard, near Venice, promised Justice Brown yesterday that he would never assault another man as long as he lives. He was arrested several months ago and sentenced by the same court to four months in the County Jail for beating Grayson Lewis, his neighboring chicken raiser, unmercifully.

York appealed to the Superior Court, and the case was sent back to the lower court for reaffirming the sentence. Yesterday he made so much of a plea for another chance that Justice Brown released him on probation of two years. The court delivered a lecture and advised the defendant to curb his passion and the defendant to curb his passion, for fear of committing some greater crime.

Now only criminal proceedings were filed against York. Justice Lewis instituted suit for $10,000 personal damages in the Superior Court. This action is still pending.

BUSINESS BREVITIES.

(Advertised.)

Cumnock School of Expression announces a series of public readings and lectures by Mrs. Bertha Kuns Baker, a famous writer, lecturer, educator and actress. The school opens on Wednesday afternoons at 4 and Friday evenings at 8. March 8 at a.p.m., "The Golden Doom," by Lord Dunstable; March 10 at 8 p.m., "The Fair Play," by G. B. Shaw; March 15 at 8 p.m., lecture, "Contemporary Poets and Poetry"; March 17 at 8 p.m., "The Unseen Empire," by Brownell; March 22 at 4 p.m., lecture, "The Mystery of the Modern Drama"; March 24 at 8 p.m., "The Yellow Jacket," by Hazelton and Benrimo.

For quick action drop answers to Times inquirer in Times liner boxes in downtown office buildings. The locations of the boxes are printed in the first column of The Times "liner" section.

For special sale box on Bartlett Music Co., 221 South Broadway, opposite City Hall. Look at classified ads for details.

Dr. Walter T. Covington announces the removal of his office to suite 419 Hollingsworth Bldg., Hill street at 6th. There is a used Steinway Grand for sale at $750. Used Music Co., 221 South Broadway, opposite City Hall.

The Times Branch Office, No. 619 South Spring street. Advertisements and subscriptions taken.

The White Lead and Color Works, will tell of how paint has been affected by the present war" at the meeting of the Los Angeles division of the International Sales Managers' Association at the Clark tomorrow evening. This will be a debate. "Resolved that the best policy is to sell the prospect first before passing on his credit," in which F. H. French of the Sierra Paper Company and W. R. Forster of the Moreland Motor Truck Company, will argue. Robert H. Mann of the Chancery & Lyon Company, and George L. Morris of the Herringbone Metal Lath Company.

and the Worst is Yet to Come.

Myer Siegel & Co.

443-445-447 South Broadway

Offer A Special Collection of Blouses at $2.50

Tailleur Blouses of heavy quality Crepe de Chine in Flock and White. Semi-dressy Blouses of Chiffon and Lace in darker colorings, adapted for Suit wear. These two assortments of attractive Blouses are combined to make this exceptional Blouse special for today (Tuesday) at $2.50.

Special Prices in Crepe de Chine Underwear

Compare these prices and inspect the quality of these undergarments—the values are unsurpassed.

Gowns and Combinations..... $3.95 to $5.85

Envelope Chemises..... $1.95 to $4.85

Petticoats..... at $5.00

GARMENTS OF STYLE, QUALITY, LOWEST PRICES

AUCTION.

J. J. SUGARMAN,
Auction and Commission House
General Auctioneers.

Furniture, Merchandise, Fixtures,
Office and Salerooms, 112-114-116 Court St.
Main 2114. —Phone 4421.

REMARKABLY LOW PRICES

SET OF TEETH, $5.00

Best set (name below, as better how much you pay) (guaranteed
10 years).
Gold Filling..... $1.00
Silver Filling..... $1.00
Gold Crown..... $1.00
Silver Crown..... $1.00
Gold Filled Root..... $1.00
Root Treated..... $1.00
Root Extracted (isolated)..... $1.00
My set (name below, as better
how much you pay) (guaranteed
10 years).
ABSOLUTELY FAIRLY EXACTLY FREE.

Brooklyn 411 Number VIII 1.

DR. FAIRFIELD

501-503 Franklin Theater Bldg.
201 No. Spring St.

AUCTION

REED & HAMMOND

1053-55 South Main Street at 11th

Hold Auction Sales of Live Stock, Furniture, Restaurants or Merchandise somewhere every day of the week. Call up F3545, Edwy, 2860, for dates.

DR. FAIRFIELD

501-503 Franklin Theater Bldg.
201 No. Spring St.

AUCTION

REED & HAMMOND

1053-55 South Main Street at 11th

Hold Auction Sales of Live Stock, Furniture, Restaurants or Merchandise somewhere every day of the week. Call up F3545, Edwy, 2860, for dates.

DR. FAIRFIELD

501-503 Franklin Theater Bldg.
201 No. Spring St.

AUCTION

REED & HAMMOND

1053-55 South Main Street at 11th

Hold Auction Sales of Live Stock, Furniture, Restaurants or Merchandise somewhere every day of the week. Call up F3545, Edwy, 2860, for dates.

DR. FAIRFIELD

501-503 Franklin Theater Bldg.
201 No. Spring St.

AUCTION

REED & HAMMOND

1053-55 South Main Street at 11th

Hold Auction Sales of Live Stock, Furniture, Restaurants or Merchandise somewhere every day of the week. Call up F3545, Edwy, 2860, for dates.

DR. FAIRFIELD

501-503 Franklin Theater Bldg.
201 No. Spring St.

AUCTION

REED & HAMMOND

1053-55 South Main Street at 11th

Hold Auction Sales of Live Stock, Furniture, Restaurants or Merchandise somewhere every day of the week. Call up F3545, Edwy, 2860, for dates.

DR. FAIRFIELD

501-503 Franklin Theater Bldg.
201 No. Spring St.

AUCTION

REED & HAMMOND

1053-55 South Main Street at 11th

Hold Auction Sales of Live Stock, Furniture, Restaurants or Merchandise somewhere every day of the week. Call up F3545, Edwy, 2860, for dates.

DR. FAIRFIELD

501-503 Franklin Theater Bldg.
201 No. Spring St.

AUCTION

REED & HAMMOND

1053-55 South Main Street at 11th

Hold Auction Sales of Live Stock, Furniture, Restaurants or Merchandise somewhere every day of the week. Call up F3545, Edwy, 2860, for dates.

DR. FAIRFIELD

501-503 Franklin Theater Bldg.
201 No. Spring St.

AUCTION

REED & HAMMOND

1053-55 South Main Street at 11th

Hold Auction Sales of Live Stock, Furniture, Restaurants or Merchandise somewhere every day of the week. Call up F3545, Edwy, 2860, for dates.

DR. FAIRFIELD

501-503 Franklin Theater Bldg.
201 No. Spring St.

AUCTION

REED & HAMMOND

1053-55 South Main Street at 11th

Hold Auction Sales of Live Stock, Furniture, Restaurants or Merchandise somewhere every day of the week. Call up F3545, Edwy, 2860, for dates.

DR. FAIRFIELD

501-503 Franklin Theater Bldg.
201 No. Spring St.

AUCTION

REED & HAMMOND

1053-55 South Main Street at 11th

Hold Auction Sales of Live Stock, Furniture, Restaurants or Merchandise somewhere every day of the week. Call up F3545, Edwy, 2860, for dates.

DR. FAIRFIELD

501-503 Franklin Theater Bldg.
201 No. Spring St.

AUCTION

REED & HAMMOND

Ever-advancing Southern Metropolis.

Pictorial City Sheet (II.)

California and the Coast—10 Pages

The Times

LOS ANGELES

LXXVTH YEAR.

For the Unwary.

BRIGHT SNARES LAID IN RADIANT FAIRYLAND.

Vision of Regal Magnificence Setting for the Bachelors' Ball.

Eleventh Annual Pre-Lenten Function of the Unseen Outdoes in Splendor All Its Predecessors, Honoring Los Angeles' Fairest in Brave Array—Spoil of the Royal Courts of the Earth Make up Their Costumes.

SPANNING in the regal magnificence of its setting and costume, the most splendid of its predecessors, the eleventh annual bachelors' ball, given last evening in the halls of the Alexandria, formed the climax to the winter season of social gaiety and threw a bright light on the approach of Lent.

Very beautiful, though simple was used decoratively, in the form of gold and gray balloons.

Masses of epiphyllum radiated from a massive floral central dome of roses and jasmine, from which gleamed a fit background for the ladies, kings, emperors, for fauns, faeries, oriental nymphs, pirates, Pierrot, beauties, ladies, and original, cubist and ultra-modern which had cleverly been used to enhance the scene of the hundreds of social pretty debutantes and stunning who make up the Almanac of the City of the Angels.

Food was served at midnight in form of pure white, save for the flowers of spring flowers, which, by the way, masterly art, had been woven into a floral border.

Dancing was resumed, and ended still the wee small hours. A breakfast was served at 6 o'clock.

THE COSTUMES.

Among the clever costumes were:

Thomas Bruce Brown appeared as a dashing major of the Serbian army, a vivacious full uniform coat and breeches topped with much epaulette.

Mr. Henry Carlton Lee was stunning in a Russian costume, mostly of white and gold, made short skirt and a well-set coat of blue velvet, elaborate.

The bachelors have had many parties.

The membership boasts

Capt. William Banning, George Burrows, W. N. Beck, G. C. Burke, Mac Blankenship, Bert Bratt, Morris Cadwalader, Bert

(Continued on Tenth Page.)

A. B. Blackstone Co.

318-320-322 South Broadway

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT!
From Choice of Beautiful New Materials Your Spring Suit Man-Tailored to Order

USHERING in the Suit-tailoring season with an opening special of unusual attractiveness.

Choose your own style and material.

Plain serges, gabardines and poplins in all the newest fabrics, shepherd checks, tweeds and fancy mixtures.

Not of silk linings and findings.

Seamstress in fit and workmanship positively guaranteed.

This offer for one week only.

Exclusive Novelties in New, Fine SILK PETTICOATS

Richly Patterned and in Wonderful Colorings —Styles have been $3.50 up selected with unusual care and offer a wide and pleasing variety—superior values.

—Beautiful Petticoats in Cloth of Gold with Camisole to match, Cloth of Silver and Gold Lace in combination.

—Soft Satin Petticoats with Flounce of Gold Lace and Camisole to match.

—Net Petticoats with Rows upon Rows of Taffeta Plaiting and stiffened Flounce.

Crepe de Chine, $5.00 up. Chemises, $2.25 up.

—The Popular Envelope Style in Pink and White; Lace, Embroidery and Ribbon trimmed.

Sale $2.50 Brassieres $1.50

—A large and varied assortment of styles in all-over embroidery and elaborate lace-trimmed effects. All sizes.

—Either back or front openings.

BURGLAR MISSES LOOT.

Cutting away the screen to a side window, a burglar early last night entered the home of W. O. Lewis, No.

1035 Oxford boulevard, and after ran-sacking the place, took a small amount of jewelry. He overlooked several hundred dollars' worth of valuables and some money.

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

—

No Limit.
TEN THOUSAND FOR FAIR TRIP

Record Crowd is Expected on Exposition Excursion.

Special Trains to Accommodate All that will Join.

Carnival to Rule Day and Night at San Diego.

Ten thousand Los Angeles boosters for the fair is the slogan of the Chamber of Commerce Committee in charge of the excursion to San Diego for opening day, March 18. With Seymour Swarts as chairman, the committee expects to organize the greatest booster trip ever made from any city.

The committee met as a body yesterday for the first time, to lay plans for the trip to participate in the opening officially of the Southern California exposition. From the time the special train leaves the Santa Fe station until they return, there will not be a dull moment. Amusements will be staged on the trains both going and returning, and the stay in the exposition city will be a one great whirlwind demonstration.

The public is invited to go on the Chamber of Commerce special, the number of which will be limited only by the number who want to go. We will sell extra train seats, if necessary, said Mr. Swarts yesterday.

GREETINGS BY WIRE.

The following telegrams were exchanged between Los Angeles and San Diego yesterday.

From President G. A. Davidson of the exposition: "We are welcome being prepared for the Chamber of Commerce's 16,000 boosters. Together we will make March 18 the greatest day of the exposition."

From President John S. Mitchell of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce: "We are partners with San Diego in this wonderful exposition. Los Angeles must not be represented by anything small, anything undignified, but by the best. We will be sure to set out to show our regard for our partners, the people of San Diego."

A committee of thirty, appointed by President Mitchell, met to discuss preliminary plans for the spectacular campaign to present the first and second sub-committees were named by Chairman Swarts. Louis N. Cole was appointed to head the Transportation Committee, to arrange for the special trains to bear the army of boosters. He will confer with the head of the exposition. James W. Weaver, who heads the Publicity Committee and Carl E. Rosenberg the "I Paid" Committee, which will handle the sale and distribution of the souvenir buttons which will pass the Angelenos through the exposition gates any number of times.

REPRESENTATIVE GATHERING. One of the most representative gatherings ever assembled in California will take part in the opening-day ceremonies. President Davidson in telegraphing his official invitations to the event, has kept Mr. Cole, Mr. Cole, special Western Union operator at the fair grounds, busy for days. Ambassadors and representatives of nineteen foreign nations, the Mayors of California cities, Governors of many States, and possibly even President Wilson, will be present. The President's answer hinges on the foreign situation at the time.

Officers and men from the Pacific Fleet, Fort Rosecrans, Aviation Corps, marines and sailors, will be present to take part in or review the military parade, which will start from downtown at 10 o'clock. At a salute from the fleet in the harbor, the flags of the nations exhibiting will be unfurled. Count Del Bel, Ambassador to the United States, will be present to President Davidson by King Alfonso and the Stars and Stripes will be raised to the music of several assembled government bands.

"Miss San Diego" will have a part in the day's programme, and in the ## Mother's Bequests a Legacy of Trouble.

Mrs. Caroline McPherson (left) and Mrs. Margaret Chase, Her mother, whom she charges with slander. The sisters have been in court almost continually since the death of their mother, Mrs. Mary McPherson, March 12, 1915.

SHOCKING.
PICKS PRISON TO CURE DRUG HABIT.

DECIDES THIS BASTILES HERE ARE FULL OF "HOP."

Youth of Twenty-one, Victim of Opium Since He was Nine, Wants to Go to San Quentin. "Have to be Rich to be a Good Hophead."

Chester Smith, a frayed and frail 21 years old, who has used drugs since he was 9, learned yesterday that absolutely no drugs can be smuggled into San Quentin prison, and as soon as he knew this positively, he applied at the police station to be sent to the northern prison for a year.

He would not consider serving a term in the City Jail, for, he said, he could always get all the "hop" he wanted in jail, and he had tested twelve times in the past five years in the County Jail, but, he said, he had bad, also the County Jail, and even the psychopathic ward in the County Hospital.

"The way we got it in jail," he said, "was to play cards and the one who got the money would get the hop." The judge of the court, Mr. Yontz, had originally been given by Phoebe A. Parker, and assigned to the plaintiff, Mr. Yontz, had guaranteed the payment of the note, it is alleged.

PLEADS GUILTY.

Miss of Malls to Conduct Lottery a Solitary Business.

Louis Fitzpatrick, indicted with others in connection with the operations of the Louisiana Lottery Company at Oakland, pleaded guilty in Judge Cushman's court to five counts in two indictments, involving the misappropriation of the malls, and was sentenced to six months in the Los Angeles County Jail on each count, the sentence to run concurrently.

Fitzpatrick was one of the alleged lottery ring leaders while he was a member of the malls, and was sent to President Davidson by King Alfonso and the Stars and Stripes will be raised to the music of several assembled government bands.

"Miss San Diego" will have a part in the day's programme, and in the Divided.

LIFELONG TIES EASILY BROKEN.

Sister Against Sister in Odd Suit for Slander.

Quarrel Over Distribution of Mother's Estate.

One Alleges Other Called Her a Thief and Liar.

A remarkable example of the manner in which a few words may sweep away in a moment the warm ties of relationship, friendship and the warmer ties of childhood associations was given in Judge Monroe's court yesterday, when Caroline Wyatt McPherson sued her sister, Margaret Loretta Chase, alleging slander. In addition to the warring sisters, two other members of the family and their friends were drawn into the suit.

The alleged slander occurred in the courthouse last summer, following a decision of the court over the probating and administration of the estate of Mrs. Mary McPherson, mother of the present contestants.

At that time, Mrs. Chase is alleged to have followed her sister, Mrs. McPherson, from the courtroom and to have said in angry tones, addressing Mrs. McPherson, and Mrs. A. Josephine Wood, another sister: "You are both liars. You have more than five acres of land you stole it."

These alleged remarks were the basis of a suit for slander that was heard yesterday, in which the plain- tiff claimed $11,000 damages.

In her reply, Mrs. Chase denies absolutely that she used the terms attributed to her, but admitted, both in the answer and on the witness stand, that what she did say and what she said.

"You know you both swore to a bareface lie when you said that mother gave you that money."

INTENDED AS WARNING.

In explanation of the remark, the defendant stated that it was meant as a warning and scolding of an elder sister, to whom she said, "You who are in danger in the Superior Court and in the great spiritual court, because, for the sake of money, they gave testimony at variance with a knowledge of the true facts."

Her sister, Mrs. A. Josephine Woods, and her brother, Hamp Wyatt. A peculiar feature of the case was that the Attorney John L. Fleming of the plaintiff's side said that he desired the witness stand and testify that similar language was used by the defendant to him just a moment prior to the alleged slander in the courthouse, according to Mrs. Chase, who said for witness her son, Attorney Ralph Chase, an attorney of record in the previous suits, and his stenographer.

The story of the childhood of the sisters and their final dissensions over the mother's estate began at the birth

of the plaintiff's wife, who was born in 1908.

To City Defender Pope he made an entire full confession of his experience in using drugs. He had begun as a messenger boy when 9 years old in the old restricted district, carrying drugs for the denizens there. They induced him to try the "hop" and he became an "addict while still a child."

"I got so now you got to be rich to be a good hophead," he said to Attorney Pope. "It costs $5 a day to smoke opium here, while you can get it for 75 cents a day at San Quentin."

The story of the childhood of the sisters and their final dissensions over the mother's estate began at the birth

of the plaintiff's wife, who was born in 1908.

To City Defender Pope he made an entire full confession of his experience in using drugs. He had begun as a messenger boy when 9 years old in the old restricted district, carrying drugs for the denizens there. They induced him to try the "hop" and he became an "addict while still a child."

"I got so now you got to be rich to be a good hophead," he said to Attorney Pope. "It costs $5 a day to smoke opium here, while you can get it for 75 cents a day at San Quentin."

The story of the childhood of the sisters and their final dissensions over the mother's estate began at the birth

of the plaintiff's wife, who was born in 1908.

To City Defender Pope he made an entire full confession of his experience in using drugs. He had begun as a messenger boy when 9 years old in the old restricted district, carrying drugs for the denizens there. They induced him to try the "hop" and he became an "addict while still a child."

"I got so now you got to be rich to be a good hophead," he said to Attorney Pope. "It costs $5 a day to smoke opium here, while you can get it for 75 cents a day at San Quentin."

The story of the childhood of the sisters and their final dissensions over the mother's estate began at the birth

of the plaintiff's wife, who was born in 1908.

To City Defender Pope he made an entire full confession of his experience in using drugs. He had begun as a messenger boy when 9 years old in the old restricted district, carrying drugs for the denizens there. They induced him to try the "hop" and he became an "addict while still a child."

"I got so now you got to be rich to be a good hophead," he said to Attorney Pope. "It costs $5 a day to smoke opium here, while you can get it for 75 cents a day at San Quentin."

The story of the childhood of the sisters and their final dissensions over the mother's estate began at the birth

of the plaintiff's wife, who was born in 1908.

To City Defender Pope he made an entire full confession of his experience in using drugs. He had begun as a messenger boy when 9 years old in the old restricted district, carrying drugs for the denizens there. They induced him to try the "hop" and he became an "addict while still a child."

"I got so now you got to be rich to be a good hophead," he said to Attorney Pope. "It costs $5 a day to smoke opium here, while you can get it for 75 cents a day at San Quentin."

The story of the childhood of the sisters and their final dissensions over the mother's estate began at the birth

of the plaintiff's wife, who was born in 1908.

To City Defender Pope he made an entire full confession of his experience in using drugs. He had begun as a messenger boy when 9 years old in the old restricted district, carrying drugs for the denizens there. They induced him to try the "hop" and he became an "addict while still a child."

"I got so now you got to be rich to be a good hophead," he said to Attorney Pope. "It costs $5 a day to smoke opium here, while you can get it for 75 cents a day at San Quentin."

The story of the childhood of the sisters and their final dissensions over the mother's estate began at the birth

of the plaintiff's wife, who was born in 1908.

To City Defender Pope he made an entire full confession of his experience in using drugs. He had begun as a messenger boy when 9 years old in the old restricted district, carrying drugs for the denizens there. They induced him to try the "hop" and he became an "addict while still a child."

"I got so now you got to be rich to be a good hophead," he said to Attorney Pope. "It costs $5 a day to smoke opium here, while you can get it for 75 cents a day at San Quentin."

The story of the childhood of the sisters and their final dissensions over the mother's estate began at the birth

of the plaintiff's wife, who was born in 1908.

To City Defender Pope he made an entire full confession of his experience in using drugs. He had begun as a messenger boy when 9 years old in the old restricted district, carrying drugs for the denizens there. They induced him to try the "hop" and he became an "addict while still a child."

"I got so now you got to be rich to be a good hophead," he said to Attorney Pope. "It costs $5 a day to smoke opium here, while you can get it for 75 cents a day at San Quentin."

The story of the childhood of the sisters and their final dissensions over the mother's estate began at the birth

of the plaintiff's wife, who was born in 1908.

To City Defender Pope he made an entire full confession of his experience in using drugs. He had begun as a messenger boy when 9 years old in the old restricted district, carrying drugs for the denizens there. They induced him to try the "hop" and he became an "addict while still a child."

"I got so now you got to be rich to be a good hophead," he said to Attorney Pope. "It costs $5 a day to smoke opium here, while you can get it for 75 cents a day at San Quentin."

The story of the childhood of the sisters and their final dissensions over the mother's estate began at the birth

of the plaintiff's wife, who was born in 1908.

To City Defender Pope he made an entire full confession of his experience in using drugs. He had begun as a messenger boy when 9 years old in the old restricted district, carrying drugs for the denizens there. They induced him to try the "hop" and he became an "addict while still a child."

"I got so now you got to be rich to be a good hophead," he said to Attorney Pope. "It costs $5 a day to smoke opium here, while you can get it for 75 cents a day at San Quentin."

The story of the childhood of the sisters and their final dissensions over the mother's estate began at the birth

of the plaintiff's wife, who was born in 1908.

To City Defender Pope he made an entire full confession of his experience in using drugs. He had begun as a messenger boy when 9 years old in the old restricted district, carrying drugs for the denizens there. They induced him to try the "hop" and he became an "addict while still a child."

"I got so now you got to be rich to be a good hophead," he said to Attorney Pope. "It costs $5 a day to smoke opium here, while you can get it for 75 cents a day at San Quentin."

The story of the childhood of the sisters and their final dissensions over the mother's estate began at the birth

of the plaintiff's wife, who was born in 1908.

To City Defender Pope he made an entire full confession of his experience in using drugs. He had begun as a messenger boy when 9 years old in the old restricted district, carrying drugs for the denizens there. They induced him to try the "hop" and he became an "addict while still a child."

"I got so now you got to be rich to be a good hophead," he said to Attorney Pope. "It costs $5 a day to smoke opium here, while you can get it for 75 cents a day at San Quentin."

The story of the childhood of the sisters and their final dissensions over the mother's estate began at the birth

of the plaintiff's wife, who was born in 1908.

To City Defender Pope he made an entire full confession of his experience in using drugs. He had begun as a messenger boy when 9 years old in the old restricted district, carrying drugs for the denizens there. They induced him to try the "hop" and he became an "addict while still a child."

"I got so now you got to be rich to be a good hophead," he said to Attorney Pope. "It costs $5 a day to smoke opium here, while you can get it for 75 cents a day at San Quentin."

The story of the childhood of the sisters and their final dissensions over the mother's estate began at the birth

of the plaintiff's wife, who was born in 1908.

To City Defender Pope he made an entire full confession of his experience in using drugs. He had begun as a messenger boy when 9 years old in the old restricted district, carrying drugs for the denizens there. They induced him to try the "hop" and he became an "addict while still a child."

"I got so now you got to be rich to be a good hophead," he said to Attorney Pope. "It costs $5 a day to smoke opium here, while you can get it for 75 cents a day at San Quentin."

The story of the childhood of the sisters and their final dissensions over the mother's estate began at the birth

of the plaintiff's wife, who was born in 1908.

To City Defender Pope he made an entire full confession of his experience in using drugs. He had begun as a messenger boy when 9 years old in the old restricted district, carrying drugs for the denizens there. They induced him to try the "hop" and he became an "addict while still a child."

"I got so now you got to be rich to be a good hophead," he said to Attorney Pope. "It costs $5 a day to smoke opium here, while you can get it for 75 cents a day at San Quentin."

The story of the childhood of the sisters and their final dissensions over the mother's estate began at the birth

of the plaintiff's wife, who was born in 1908.

To City Defender Pope he made an entire full confession of his experience in using drugs. He had begun as a messenger boy when 9 years old in the old restricted district, carrying drugs for the denizens there. They induced him to try the "hop" and he became an "addict while still a child."

"I got so

TUESDAY MORNING.

Over $4,000,000

STATE MEDICAL LAW ASSAILED.Druggists Practitioners Start Fight in Federal Court.Constitutionality of Act is Called into Question.Insolence Exceeded Police Power, is Allegation.

An attack upon the State medical law, backed, it is declared, by more than 700 druggists practitioners throughout California, was opened in a complaint filed in the United States Circuit Court yesterday.

The complainant is P. L. Crane of this city, who says he has practiced healing in California for over seven years, that he has always held himself as a good citizen and has a family dependent on him for support. He alleges he has been persecuted by the law in question, passed by the California Legislature in 1913, and deprived of his rights under the provisions of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

The defendants in the action are Governor, Atty.-Gen. Webb, and Dist.-Atty. Woodbury.

The act complained of is to regulate the qualifications of applicants for medical practice, and the practice of those licensed in the treatment of disease; to establish a board of medical examiners and to repeal a former act of California, giving the state regulatory power of medical practice.

It is alleged that in the passage of the law referred to the Legislature, under the guise of police regulation, created a monopoly in healing services against every other school of medicine.

The complainant asserted that the portion of the law referring to druggists practitioners is obnoxious to and discriminative against every other school of medicine healing and that it is therefore unconstitutional and void.

POWER EXCEEDED?

Crane sets out that the practice of medicine requires a lawful examination and that the Legislature did not have the power, under the guise of police regulation, to impose harsh, discriminatory and unreasonable and arbitrary conditions.

It is further asserted that the Legislature did not have the power to distinguish between treatment of the sick by prayer, by faith, mental suggestion and mental adaptation. Mr. Crane also asserted that the medical profession is not a monopoly of medicine, and is not a monopoly in his practice.

It is stated that the act of the Legislature be declared null and void, the Atty.-Gen. Webb and the Dist.-Atty. be enjoined from enforcing the same, and that a temporary injunction be granted.

The bill is voluminous, and embodies the full text of the medical law it is attacked. Under the rules of the court, the question of the constitutionality of a law must be decided by three judges, one of whom is a United States circuit judge.

An application must first be made to the court to be adjudicated, and a panel of judges is then agreed on. An instance of how constitutional questions are handled in the Federal Courts here is in the recent hearings here on questions involving the constitutionality of the prohibition amendment to the Constitution of the United States and review of the acts of the House and Committee of the House in the first instance by Circuit Judge Ross and United States District Judges Wellborn and Sawhill, the last of Phoenix, Ariz., and in the last instance by Judges Ross, Sawhill and Sawtell.

QUICK ACTION WANTED.

It is understood immediate action will be taken on the question involved in the creation of the State Medical Board and the examinations held by that body, the licensing of applicants, etc., but it will be impossible to accomplish anything until the return of John Ross from San Francisco, where he is now sitting in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. His calendar is full until March 29, and it will be early in April, at least, before the constitutionality of the act can be judicially determined; but no time will be lost.

The bill represents the unrest under which the druggists healers have labored ever since the passage of the medical bill, that was signed by the Governor in August, 1913. The practitioners have been persecuted by the Legislature in the druggists healing services, and a big fund raised to combat the constitutionality of the legislation.

The local bill was filed by Tom Johnson, but it is understood there will be an immediate ballot of the Legislature in session representing the druggists practitioners at the hearings. That will be a general assembly of physicians who employ drugs to accomplish cures, and who are committed against the druggists, is considered certain.

Opportunity.

NEW ZEALAND OPEN
FOR OUR PRODUCTS.AGENT HERE
WITH EYE ON CONDITIONS.We depend on Orange Industry and Irrigation Methods—Says His Majesty is Ready to Turn Great Country to California After the War.Maurice O'Brien, assistant commissioner of the Pacific International Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our citrus industry, and it is the request of the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of
the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-cial in the Department of Agriculture
and the assistant commissioner
of the Pacific International
Exposition, has a survey of Southern California
with a view to reporting to his
superior and how we handle our
citrus industry, and it is the request of the Chamber of Commerce, New Zealand, an offi-

TUESDAY MORNING.

MARCH 7, 1916.—[PART II]

5

For City's Good.

WILL REVISE METHOD OF SUPERVISING CHARITIES.

Municipal Control of Aid to Poor Hereafter will Probably be Through Issuance of Indorsements to Organizations that Meet Efficiency Requirements—Council Places Preparation of New Law in Hands of Welfare Committee.

THE municipality of Los Angeles will not abandon supervision of charities, regardless of the recent Supreme Court decision in the状案, which was made certain in the public hearing before the committee of the whole of the City Council.

That the method of supervision will be through investigation of charities and the issuance of indorsements of permits to solicit support, has been the order heretofore indicated by the discussions that have taken place and the recommendations of various social service bodies, which had been formulated before discussion at several meetings.

Maj. W. J. Dart and Maj. Louise Cogshall of the Salvation Army spoke regarding the position of this organization.

Other speakers were Dr. Charles H. T. Hale, Miss Evelyn Stoddard, Robert T. Hale, Mrs. Joseph Dion, Mrs. George Rice, Mrs. Josephine Foster, and others.

FOR THE COMMISSION.

P. J. McGarry and Dr. Johnson spoke on behalf of the commission.

Mr. McGarry reviewed the history of the formation of the commission and the work it has accomplished.

Dr. Johnson said that the commission has constantly stood for a consolidation of the city and county charity work, but that because of certain prejudices it had been impossible to bring this about, although all the original relief work had been turned over to the county.

He read a letter from Bishop Johnson strongly endorsing the work of the commission and expressing the hope that it would be continued.

"After we have your

Life's Gentler Side—Society, Music, Song and the Dance—The Theaters.

SOCIETY.

INNUMERABLE smart dinner parties started the bachelor's ball festivities last evening, the largest, perhaps, having for hosts Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carlton Lee, who, at the California Club entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jameson, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McDonald Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. William May Garland, the Salisbury, Capt. and Mrs. Randolph Huntington Miner, Dr. and Mrs. Guy Cochran, Dr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Connelly, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney J. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Clark, Jr., Miss Marie Louise Bryant, Arthur Hoyt of New York, Norwood W. Howard and William Winters.

The Bryants dined also and dinner guests at the California Club, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Hancock Banning, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Perry Story and Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Banning.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weeks Banks gave a dinner of twelve covers in compliment to some Charlestons (W. Va.) friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Price. Hidden meet them were Mr. and Mrs. James R. and Pauline M. and Miss Edward Lawrence Doheny, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nebecker, Miss Robinson of Pasadena and Clare Woolwich.

Mrs. J. N. Van Nuya, Mrs. Walter M. Moore, Clara Van Nuya, Mrs. E. E. McMullin, Mrs. William Kay Crawford and Ray Master dined with Mr. and Mrs. J. Benten Van Nuya, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brunswig were hosts to Miss Eleanor Banning, Miss Willis Van Dike, Mrs. Clara Jack Macfarland and Fredrick Day.

Miss Rose Nieto, Miss Mildred Landreth, Miss Gertrude King, Miss Florence Kaya, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mueller, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Garver, Walter Kay, Robertapp and Alex MacDonald enjoyed the hospitality of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Schweppe, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander J. Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson P. Chamberlain and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Brinston Barnham and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Grimm were at the John G. Mott home, and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Overton, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cook, Dr. and Mrs. James W. and Mrs. Harry Coburn Turner, while Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Van Kaasthoven, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Allen of Pasadena and Mr. Benten were among the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Jarvis Barlow.

With Mr. and Mrs. Morgan O. Adams were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wright, Miss Katherine Banning, Miss Dorothy Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart O'Malley, Dr. and Mrs. George D. O'Malley, and the Walter Comstocks had a small coterie.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marsh entertained for dinner the Edward Law, Dudley Day, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Milbank, Mr. and Mrs. Howard and Dudley and Mr. and Mrs. Lyman R. McPie.

In Compliment to Visitor.

Honoring Mrs. Leavitt T. Robbins of Plymouth, Mass., the house guest of John G. Mott, Mrs. M. Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Anderson, Mr. Thomas Rhytta, Dr. and Mrs. N. C. Hall, Mrs. D. Drexel, Mrs. J. T. Keith, Miss Katherine Keith, Mrs. R. S. McClintock, Mrs. J. D. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. C. Volta and Miss Alice Walters.

After spending three weeks in Japan during "cherry blossom season" the party will proceed through Korea, Manchuria, to Peking, China, thence the Philippines Islands.

Theatres—Amusements—Entertainments

CLUNE'S THEATER BEAUTIFUL

AUDITORIUM Twice Prices Nights 25-50-75c Daily 25 and 50c

5th Big Week—100,000 Thrilled

CLUNE'S HELEN HUNT JACKSON'S PREMIER HISTORICAL ROMANCE PRODUCTION OF CALIFORNIA

66 RAMONA '99 A Cinema-Theatrical Entertainment

CLUNE'S BROADWAY—Kathlyn Williams & Tyrone Power in "THOU SHALT NOT COVET" A SPECTACULAR DRAMA IN FIVE PARTS.

TALLY'S BROADWAY THEATER FLORENCE REED IN "NEW YORK"

SYMPHONY THEATER—This Week. 614 So. Bdwy. Margerie Snow with Popular Author "The Upstart" A Sparkling Satirical Comedy-Drama in Five Acts of Exquisite Photoplay Based Upon the Successful Stage Production by THOMAS BARRY.

MILLER'S "The Marble Heart" with VIOLET NORRIS FOX PHOTOPLATES Heurt-Vigoureux News. Shows at 11, 12:30, 2, 3:30, 4, 5:30, 7:45 and 9:15 P.M.

A LHAMBARA—MILLERY'S "The Devil's Brew" 11 South Hill St.

REPUBLIC—Mrs. Lever's Stage Main. 11th Street, 4th Continues 1 to 11 P.M. Mrs. Vaudville Act.

NEW STRAND—Grand Ave. Near Hobart Bosworth in "THE TARGET" Together with New Views and Comedies

NEW PALACE—Seventh Street, Between 10c-15c 11 A.M. to 11 P.M. "Hop, the Devil's Brew" First and Last. "The Iron Claw" A Thrilling New Serial

VISIT the Cawston Ostrich Farm, South Pasadena New open for visitors daily. See the gigantic birds at play. 1000 ostriches, all sizes and ages. Round trip tickets, including admission to Farm, can be purchased for 50c at F. E. Depot or at our downtown store, 728 South Broadway.

VERNON A. C.—BOXING—TONIGHT DOTLEY'S 12TH AND SANTA FE AVE. ADMISSION 50c. SECTION RESERVED FOR LADIES.

WERNER A. C.—BOXING—TONIGHT DOTLEY'S 12TH AND SANTA FE AVE. ADMISSION 50c. SECTION RESERVED FOR LADIES.

WERNER A. C.—BOXING—TONIGHT DOTLEY'S 12TH AND SANTA FE AVE. ADMISSION 50c. SECTION RESERVED FOR LADIES.

MUSICAL

Blended.

WEB OF RARE BEAUTY.

OPERA AND BALLET ARE HAPPY AND CHARMING MATES.

By Edwin P. Schallert.

The voice of exquisite song, the varied lights and shades of motion, the pulsation of look, word and glance, all filled with the wondrous throbs of life through divine rhythm and color, were woven together in web of various beauty at the opening performance of the Boston Opera Company and the Pavlova Imperial Ballet Russa last night at the Mason Auditorium by this, the first word spoken by the company of the art of the moment, they are delirious to promises far to surpass anything within the recollection of most of us, in the breadth of its scope and the charm of its presentation.

There is a suggestion of Tristian and Isolde about the whole of the second act, particularly in the scarf-waving episode, although the master of the music and the form of the drama hide very differently. There is also a vague suggestion of the tower episode of "Pelleas and Melisande."

The glory of pure white pervading the wondrous blue-green of the "Snowflake" ballet setting might even suggest the spirit of beauty was on dancing water; its beauty was on concentrated essence of perfection in its reality and suggestion. The audience was wafted into the realm of fairyland by the rhythm of the dancing, as in a dream, with the quivering of its presentation.

And here ballet are happy mates. It is known, of course, that the later added much to the grace of the former when it was introduced as a part of the performance, but given as separate features of the same evening, the result is that the two balance each other in most alluring fashion, especially in the case of two such opposite works as "L'Amore dei tre Re" and the Snowflake ballet presented last night. The former is a soft, twirling, flowing ballet of love and beauty, and the latter a wild flame of scintillating light, whose quivering beauty permeates to the soul of things.

Whether we meet the Boston Opera Company and the Pavlova Imperial Ballet Russa in the land of tragic shadows or in the world of light, this was made manifest and that is they move through the mazes, the tortuous pathways and the clear open spaces of either with a light and clear manner of whether you prefer a man or a woman, which you will like the best. I believe, in the case of subsequent productions of the company. The best way is to go prepared to enjoy both, for when you will be sure to get your full money's worth.

And here it must be set down—that company will not have a wealth of having two leading women. Fania Marinoff is the heroine of the first three reels and Florence Reed of the last two. They are both competent actresses and are excellently cast. Miss Reed has some unusually big scenes and is her forceful self in them all. Miss Marinoff is called on for quite a different quality of work, but is every bit as finished in what she does as is Florence Reed with whom the honors are thus divided.

The story is that of a young man who is made the toy and the meal ticket of a chorus girl. This young man kills the father of his child.

It was a subduing spell that the Montezuma opera created—this opera was created in the world of music and dance, where every gesture is an infinity of expression, whose every emotion, subtle and refined though it may be to the last degree, finds its life in motion? Even though they have the power of "singing del Re" there were many people who waited with a bit of longing in their hearts for the coming of the dancer.

It was a subduing spell that the Montezuma opera created—this opera was created in the world of music and dance, where every gesture is an infinity of expression, whose every emotion, subtle and refined though it may be to the last degree, finds its life in motion? Even though they have the power of "singing del Re" there were many people who waited with a bit of longing in their hearts for the coming of the dancer.

For one thing, it has the merit of having two leading women. Fania Marinoff is the heroine of the first three reels and Florence Reed of the last two. They are both competent actresses and are excellently cast.

Miss Reed has some unusually big scenes and is her forceful self in them all. Miss Marinoff is called on for quite a different quality of work, but is every bit as finished in what she does as is Florence Reed with whom the honors are thus divided.

The story is that of a young man who is made the toy and the meal ticket of a chorus girl. This young man kills the father of his child.

It was a subduing spell that the Montezuma opera created—this opera was created in the world of music and dance, where every gesture is an infinity of expression, whose every emotion, subtle and refined though it may be to the last degree, finds its life in motion? Even though they have the power of "singing del Re" there were many people who waited with a bit of longing in their hearts for the coming of the dancer.

It was a subduing spell that the Montezuma opera created—this opera was created in the world of music and dance, where every gesture is an infinity of expression, whose every emotion, subtle and refined though it may be to the last degree, finds its life in motion? Even though they have the power of "singing del Re" there were many people who waited with a bit of longing in their hearts for the coming of the dancer.

For one thing, it has the merit of having two leading women. Fania Marinoff is the heroine of the first three reels and Florence Reed of the last two. They are both competent actresses and are excellently cast.

Miss Reed has some unusually big scenes and is her forceful self in them all. Miss Marinoff is called on for quite a different quality of work, but is every bit as finished in what she does as is Florence Reed with whom the honors are thus divided.

The story is that of a young man who is made the toy and the meal ticket of a chorus girl. This young man kills the father of his child.

It was a subduing spell that the Montezuma opera created—this opera was created in the world of music and dance, where every gesture is an infinity of expression, whose every emotion, subtle and refined though it may be to the last degree, finds its life in motion? Even though they have the power of "singing del Re" there were many people who waited with a bit of longing in their hearts for the coming of the dancer.

For one thing, it has the merit of having two leading women. Fania Marinoff is the heroine of the first three reels and Florence Reed of the last two. They are both competent actresses and are excellently cast.

Miss Reed has some unusually big scenes and is her forceful self in them all. Miss Marinoff is called on for quite a different quality of work, but is every bit as finished in what she does as is Florence Reed with whom the honors are thus divided.

The story is that of a young man who is made the toy and the meal ticket of a chorus girl. This young man kills the father of his child.

It was a subduing spell that the Montezuma opera created—this opera was created in the world of music and dance, where every gesture is an infinity of expression, whose every emotion, subtle and refined though it may be to the last degree, finds its life in motion? Even though they have the power of "singing del Re" there were many people who waited with a bit of longing in their hearts for the coming of the dancer.

For one thing, it has the merit of having two leading women. Fania Marinoff is the heroine of the first three reels and Florence Reed of the last two. They are both competent actresses and are excellently cast.

Miss Reed has some unusually big scenes and is her forceful self in them all. Miss Marinoff is called on for quite a different quality of work, but is every bit as finished in what she does as is Florence Reed with whom the honors are thus divided.

The story is that of a young man who is made the toy and the meal ticket of a chorus girl. This young man kills the father of his child.

It was a subduing spell that the Montezuma opera created—this opera was created in the world of music and dance, where every gesture is an infinity of expression, whose every emotion, subtle and refined though it may be to the last degree, finds its life in motion? Even though they have the power of "singing del Re" there were many people who waited with a bit of longing in their hearts for the coming of the dancer.

For one thing, it has the merit of having two leading women. Fania Marinoff is the heroine of the first three reels and Florence Reed of the last two. They are both competent actresses and are excellently cast.

Miss Reed has some unusually big scenes and is her forceful self in them all. Miss Marinoff is called on for quite a different quality of work, but is every bit as finished in what she does as is Florence Reed with whom the honors are thus divided.

The story is that of a young man who is made the toy and the meal ticket of a chorus girl. This young man kills the father of his child.

It was a subduing spell that the Montezuma opera created—this opera was created in the world of music and dance, where every gesture is an infinity of expression, whose every emotion, subtle and refined though it may be to the last degree, finds its life in motion? Even though they have the power of "singing del Re" there were many people who waited with a bit of longing in their hearts for the coming of the dancer.

For one thing, it has the merit of having two leading women. Fania Marinoff is the heroine of the first three reels and Florence Reed of the last two. They are both competent actresses and are excellently cast.

Miss Reed has some unusually big scenes and is her forceful self in them all. Miss Marinoff is called on for quite a different quality of work, but is every bit as finished in what she does as is Florence Reed with whom the honors are thus divided.

The story is that of a young man who is made the toy and the meal ticket of a chorus girl. This young man kills the father of his child.

It was a subduing spell that the Montezuma opera created—this opera was created in the world of music and dance, where every gesture is an infinity of expression, whose every emotion, subtle and refined though it may be to the last degree, finds its life in motion? Even though they have the power of "singing del Re" there were many people who waited with a bit of longing in their hearts for the coming of the dancer.

For one thing, it has the merit of having two leading women. Fania Marinoff is the heroine of the first three reels and Florence Reed of the last two. They are both competent actresses and are excellently cast.

Miss Reed has some unusually big scenes and is her forceful self in them all. Miss Marinoff is called on for quite a different quality of work, but is every bit as finished in what she does as is Florence Reed with whom the honors are thus divided.

The story is that of a young man who is made the toy and the meal ticket of a chorus girl. This young man kills the father of his child.

It was a subduing spell that the Montezuma opera created—this opera was created in the world of music and dance, where every gesture is an infinity of expression, whose every emotion, subtle and refined though it may be to the last degree, finds its life in motion? Even though they have the power of "singing del Re" there were many people who waited with a bit of longing in their hearts for the coming of the dancer.

For one thing, it has the merit of having two leading women. Fania Marinoff is the heroine of the first three reels and Florence Reed of the last two. They are both competent actresses and are excellently cast.

Miss Reed has some unusually big scenes and is her forceful self in them all. Miss Marinoff is called on for quite a different quality of work, but is every bit as finished in what she does as is Florence Reed with whom the honors are thus divided.

The story is that of a young man who is made the toy and the meal ticket of a chorus girl. This young man kills the father of his child.

It was a subduing spell that the Montezuma opera created—this opera was created in the world of music and dance, where every gesture is an infinity of expression, whose every emotion, subtle and refined though it may be to the last degree, finds its life in motion? Even though they have the power of "singing del Re" there were many people who waited with a bit of longing in their hearts for the coming of the dancer.

For one thing, it has the merit of having two leading women. Fania Marinoff is the heroine of the first three reels and Florence Reed of the last two. They are both competent actresses and are excellently cast.

Miss Reed has some unusually big scenes and is her forceful self in them all. Miss Marinoff is called on for quite a different quality of work, but is every bit as finished in what she does as is Florence Reed with whom the honors are thus divided.

The story is that of a young man who is made the toy and the meal ticket of a chorus girl. This young man kills the father of his child.

It was a subduing spell that the Montezuma opera created—this opera was created in the world of music and dance, where every gesture is an infinity of expression, whose every emotion, subtle and refined though it may be to the last degree, finds its life in motion? Even though they have the power of "singing del Re" there were many people who waited with a bit of longing in their hearts for the coming of the dancer.

For one thing, it has the merit of having two leading women. Fania Marinoff is the heroine of the first three reels and Florence Reed of the last two. They are both competent actresses and are excellently cast.

Miss Reed has some unusually big scenes and is her forceful self in them all. Miss Marinoff is called on for quite a different quality of work, but is every bit as finished in what she does as is Florence Reed with whom the honors are thus divided.

The story is that of a young man who is made the toy and the meal ticket of a chorus girl. This young man kills the father of his child.

It was a subduing spell that the Montezuma opera created—this opera was created in the world of music and dance, where every gesture is an infinity of expression, whose every emotion, subtle and refined though it may be to the last degree, finds its life in motion? Even though they have the power of "singing del Re" there were many people who waited with a bit of longing in their hearts for the coming of the dancer.

For one thing, it has the merit of having two leading women. Fania Marinoff is the heroine of the first three reels and Florence Reed of the last two. They are both competent actresses and are excellently cast.

Miss Reed has some unusually big scenes and is her forceful self in them all. Miss Marinoff is called on for quite a different quality of work, but is every bit as finished in what she does as is Florence Reed with whom the honors are thus divided.

The Mat Game Commands the Calcium's Glare This Week for a Change

Basketball.

CLUBMEN TAKE TWO BATTLES.

A. Jack Roth Leads Fighters to Victory.

Heavyweights Beat Crescents with Ease.

Losers Were Bothered by One "Red" Wilson.

WEIGHTS	WON	LOST	P.C.
Whittier Crescents	1	0	.667
Calif. A. C.	1	0	.667
L.A.A.C.	1	0	.667
Whittier Crescents	1	0	.667
Whittier High School	1	0	.667
Calif. A. C.	1	0	.667
L.A.A.C.	1	0	.667
Whittier High School	1	0	.667
Calif. A. C.	1	0	.667
L.A.A.C.	1	0	.667

Two club basketball teams won victories last night. The L.A.A.C. heavyweights defeated the Whittier Crescents, 25 to 19, while A. Jack Roth's fighting Irishmen played rings around Pasadena High School in the bantam-weight game.

The bantamweight contest was such a walkaway for the club during the last half that one wonders how it was that the Irishmen ever lost a game, even to Whittier High School. Roth was shooting baskets like wild, while Morrison annexed eight points. The only Pasadena man who could do anything at all was Phelps, who scored ten points, mostly foul.

The heavyweight game resulted in a victory for the club because the Crescents let Red Wilson jar on their finer sensibilities. They paid so much attention to roughing him that at times they forgot about basket shooting. That was especially true in the second half. Every time they would leave Red a patch in the nose he would dash right over and score a free goal. Once he went so far as to penetrate late Brownell. The latter's goat had the hair on its back grizzled up all the rest of the evening.

This round of action greatly excited the many Whittier girls who came to this city with the Crescents. One girl, quite beside herself with excitement, finally shouted at the top of her voice: "I know we don't like Wilson, but you fellows sure do. I have so many fans called we'll lose the game." She turned out to be a pro.

The ones guarding of Brandstetter and Williams, the wild romper at basketball from mid-country by the Crescents were largely responsible for the outcome of the game. Had the Crescents passed a little more and not tried for a basket every time they would have won the ball the score might have been different.

Wilson, Blair and Slaughter did some fine shooting whenever they could dodge around the long arms of Jerry Baum, which was seldom.

The score:

HEAVYWEIGHTS

Team	Won	Lost	P.C.
Whittier High School	7	1	.875
Orange	6	2	.750
L.A.A.C.	4	3	.563
Pasadena	4	3	.563
Whittier	3	4	.429
Calif. A. C.	3	4	.429
Whittier	1	5	.167
L.A.A.C.	0	6	.000

W. R. M. (Red) Wilson, the Masked Marvel of San Diego, is shown in his first, last and only photograph, and Sam Clapham, his opponent below.

The grapplers.

Above, the "Masked Marvel" of San Diego, his first, last and only photograph, and Sam Clapham, his opponent below.

With The Wrestlers.

Masked Stuff.

WHITE WANTS TO BOX THE WINNER.

CLAPHAM-MARVED CHAMPION WILL BE VICTIM.

Arizona Cyclone Wastes no Time in Handing in Challenges and Getting into Shape—White Claims a Fall Over Ad Santell—Dan McLeod Will Probably be Selected as Referee.

Jack White, the Arizona cyclone, is the first of the out-of-town brigade of wrestlers to read about the revival of the grappling game hereabouts, and he has arrived on the scene for the express purpose of challenging the winner of the Sam Clapham-Masked Marvel contest, slated for Wednesday night, before the Olympic Athletic Club.

Waiting no time after landing here, White hunted up Promoter Bill Meek and issued a challenge to the victor in the coming mat tilt, and he will be at the ring side to make his def in person from the ring before the mad start hostilities.

White claims to have gained some fall over Ad Santell, and has met some of the best matmen who have come through Arizona. He weighs 200 pounds, and has been following the same for years, according to the newspaper clippings he totes about with him.

The advance sale for the Clapham-Masked Marvel contest is far above the expectations of the promoters, and all hands of Clapham money awaiting the arrival of Billy McMahen and his wrestling marvel.

Carl Neumann, a well-known local catch-as-catch-can artist, gave Sam Clapham an audience when yesterday he was at the school of Clapham and he suffered some pretty bad spills at the hands of his lighter but more crafty grappling partner.

A GOOD ONE.

Dan McLeod will in all likelihood be selected as the referee. A better man could be hard to make for Dan is a master of the game and the undisputed light-heavyweight champion of the world.

Battling Ortega and Vic Wright, slam-bang boxers, will settle a grudge that they have been harboring for some time.

COLLEGE TENNIS MEN ARE FINALLY CHOSEN.

Lengthy.

GOTCH ENJOYS FAST MATCHES.

WORKS OUT WITH SEVERAL LOCAL HOPES.

Earl Daggett is Tossed Around in Nifty Fashion—Large Crowd Watches Champion Go Through His Tricks—Demetral Arrives Today and Will Begin Training.

After playing six hard games of hand ball and wrestling a half hour with four big huskies, Frank Gotch was as fresh as a daisy, at the Los Angeles Athletic Club, yesterday afternoon, where he is preparing himself for his match with Will Demetral, the Greek champion, which will be Friday night of this week.

Jack White, a 200-pound aspirant for wrestling honors, fresh from Fort Worth, Tex., was the first man to go on with the champion and they put up a very interesting bout. Gotch was working fast to improve his wind and handled the big Texan rather roughly, but at the end they were both smiling and seemed to enjoy the go on.

Earl Daggett, a L.A.A.C. heavyweight, was the next to go on with Gotch and lasted about five minutes before he had enough.

Tony Ball, from Chicago, and Bill Huber of the L.A.A.C. were the other two to wrestle with the champion and there were no others to go on. Gotch called it a day's work.

A good sized crowd watched the workout yesterday and most of them who had seen Gotch work before, when he first started to train, remarked at his wonderful improvement. There is one thing about Gotch. He has very little superfluous weight to take off, for when he started to train for his match here with Demetral he was only 100 pounds over the weight he made for his amateurish matches three years ago.

Demetral will arrive today at 2:40 o'clock on the California Limited and will go immediately to the club for his match. Demetral's condition needs very little work as he has been in constant training and the time from now until Friday night will be sufficient to put him in the pink of condition.

A GOOD ONE.

Dan McLeod will in all likelihood be selected as the referee. A better man could be hard to make for Dan is a master of the game and the undisputed light-heavyweight champion of the world.

Battling Ortega and Vic Wright, slam-bang boxers, will settle a grudge that they have been harboring for some time.

COLLEGE TENNIS MEN ARE FINALLY CHOSEN.

Terrible.

AUTO ACCIDENT ENDS FATALY.

CROCKETT DROWNED IN SAN DIEGO BAY.

Well-known Amusement Man Loses Life When Speeding Auto Plunges from Ferry into Water. Efforts Made to Revive Life but Without Success.

BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.

SAN DIEGO, March 6.—Benjamin "Day" Crockett, well known in sporting and amusement circles of the Pacific Coast, was drowned here about 8 o'clock tonight when a big seven-passenger automobile in which he was riding plunged from the Coronado ferry into San Diego Bay. Crockett's body was in the water little more than five minutes, but an hour's work with the pulmotor failed to revive him. His wife, who is living at the Bush Hotel in Los Angeles, was notified by telephone of his death tonight.

E. S. Webb, driver and owner of the machine, was arrested.

Crockett, with the driver, Bob Heintz, a friend and four sailors, were on their way to Coronado. During the journey to the ferry three of the sailors were killed when the high speed of the ferry rate, and when it slowed down, jumped out. According to eyewitnesses, the car, which was the first to enter the ferry boat, drove through to the far side, and then through the water. Just before the car went off the edge, T. A. Horan, a sailor, jumped from the machine, but Crockett, Webb and Heintz were carried down with the car. Webb and Heintz were quickly rescued.

Crockett was a concessionaire on the Isthmus at the Panama-California Exposition.

Demetral will arrive today at 2:40

o'clock on the California Limited and will go immediately to the club for his match. Demetral's condition needs very little work as he has been in constant training and the time from now until Friday night will be sufficient to put him in the pink of condition.

Demetral will arrive today at 2:40 o'clock on the California Limited and will go immediately to the club for his match. Demetral's condition needs very little work as he has been in constant training and the time from now until Friday night will be sufficient to put him in the pink of condition.

A GOOD ONE.

Dan McLeod will in all likelihood be selected as the referee. A better man could be hard to make for Dan is a master of the game and the undisputed light-heavyweight champion of the world.

Battling Ortega and Vic Wright, slam-bang boxers, will settle a grudge that they have been harboring for some time.

COLLEGE TENNIS MEN ARE FINALLY CHOSEN.

SOFT.

GOLF MATCHES GO BY DEFAULT.

Wright Defeats Graves in Lone Contest.

Medalist Mears also Gets Smacked Down.

Exciting League Matches for Saturday.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

BY L. R. MURRAY WIRE.

CHICAGO, March 6.—Word that the California Golf Association has been asked to withdraw the offer of free transportation for members of the Western Golf Association, who desire to attend the annual tournament at Del Monte, Cal., next summer was received here yesterday from President George R. Balch of the Western Association, who is at Palm Beach, Fla. After the recent mail vote of the directors of the Western Association rejecting the offer of free transportation which was accepted at the annual meeting here in January, the secretary formally asked the California Association to withdraw the offer.

Seven out of the eight matches in the Annandale Country Club's championship golf tournament were won by default yesterday, which is a nice noncommittal way of getting licked. The only match that was played, that between E. N. Wright and Clyde Graves, absorbed all the keen competition, Wright winning by but 1 up.

Nate Mears, Michael McLaughlin, W. R. Cameron, J. H. Warner, Arthur Braly, Paul F. Dales and W. M. Jawett had nothing to do but write their names down in the next bracket for the second round.

In the first round, McLaughlin beat Nate Mears, the first medalist, by 6 up, and 4. Cameron beat Warner, 6 up, and 7. Braly beat Dales, 7 up, and 6.

The only player who is really working for the laurels is E. N. Wright and W. K. Jewett carried him to the nineteenth hole before concluding victory.

Today's matches are between McLaughlin and Cameron, Braly and Warner.

There will be three league matches on Saturday next—Los Angeles goes to Midway, San Gabriel goes to Annandale, and Altadena goes to Orange.

There will also be a special tournament for the Los Angeles Country Club for the players between 12 and 24 handicap—22 to quality.

SALT LAKE OFFICIALS ARE GREATLY PEEVED.

Salt Lake baseball officials are getting ready to yell their heads off if Bill Kenworthy is signed by the Oakland team. Kenworthy jumped from the old Sacramento club after the 1913 season, and joined the Kansas City Feds.

A year ago the Sacramento club was transferred to Salt Lake and what claims Sacramento had on Kenworthy went with the trade.

And although Salt Lake has no real kick coming, it is extremely probable that she will raise an awful yell when Kenworthy signs with a rival club.

AERONAUTIC SHARKS GATHER AT CHILE.

BY P. NIGHT WIRE.

SANTIAGO (Chile) March 6.—The first of the Pan-American aeronautics conferences, called to discuss a union of the air defense facilities of the Americas began today in this city.

Delegates from all the American countries were in attendance.

Albert Santos-Dumont, the noted Brazilian aviator, represents the United States.

The game was just one.

Whittier after another, with the Trojans trying to locate the ball. About the only time that they saw it was when Referee Hood threw it up for the centers to jump for after each whistle.

Arrangements were completed yesterday for the annual meet and field meet. The airfield will be packed at the fair grounds on Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Alfred Weber will stay on the job the rest of the week and give the happy news to all the fans as they come in.

This duty devolves upon him in the absence of the Peerless Leader.

The big arm of Scrappa will make a specialty of Scrappa's

and the diamond will be the main attraction.

Arrangements were completed

for the annual meet and field

Celebrities of Opera and Dance.

RIALTO.

Behind the Curtain.

GRAND OPERA NOTES.

ENORITA MARIE CREATES NEW CARMEN ROLE.

By Grace Kingsley.
Pavlova, who opened with the Boston Opera Company and the Ballet Russes at the Mason last night, prepared in these weeks' time the big new productions which she introduces this season!

Mme. Pavlova is an indefatigable worker, as may be guessed by the above.

"I thought it would be a beautiful thing for the grand opera and the dancing to go together, as in France," said the dancer. Wherefore with the fortune which she earned in making "The Blue Girl of Portici" for the Universal she went out and founded the Boston Grand Opera Company. Truly a lady of courage and enterprise.

And then, with the help of M. Clusine and in conference with Max Reinhardt, and others, she has sent to Boston the new list productions suitable to the operatic number deemed most desirable to stage. And at the end of three laborious weeks in Chicago, ballets had been conceived, costumes and scenery designed, and rehearsals begun.

Dress for Treasures.

Maggie Teyte, who sang the role of Mme. Pavlova in "L'Amore del Tra Ra" at the Mason last night, fears somewhat for her home in the residence section of Los Angeles, where she has collections of porcelain, miniatures, and a collection of ancient musical instruments of great value.

Miss Teyte does not like to talk of the war, for she has three brothers in the thick of it in France.

Resumes.

Speaking of the war, one is reminded that the jeweled crown which Miss Teyte wears in "L'Amore del Tra Ra" has a most fascinating history. It was made for the highborn of Florence, a youth of Florence. Just before he enlisted in the army, he was a jeweler by trade, who had heard Miss Teyte sing, and conceived a romantic admiration for her.

One day when he sat dreaming of her, the object of his admiration materialized before his eyes. She had come to order a crown for her newest role, she said, and he, overbearing, begged to be allowed to make it. It is of fine and beautiful workmanship. The prince despatched a letter from the boy, the other day, written just before his regiment left for the Isonzo.

New Carmen.

Soprano Maria Gay, who sings in "Carmen" on Saturday night, says she sings the role in an entirely different manner than did Calve.

"I am Spanish," she says, "and I have a certain conception of how the part should be—just as Calve had it. I am Spanish. Calve's Carmen is very beautiful, certainly, but I think the public enjoys a new conception of a character. My Carmen is not coquettish, not a bit. The original Carmen, I think from the story, cannot be coquettish, because it is a band of brigands, and held them by force of personality. That is the way I have made my Carmen—Carmen of the people, but of very strong and forceful personality."

New Opera.

Soprano Gay has a new opera in view for next season, by Enrique Granados. It is entitled "Maria del Carmen," and embodies another Spanish type of character.

The opera was originally written for Miss Gay by Granados, but it was found too high for her voice. The singer states she received a letter from the composer a few days ago in which he stated he had re-written the music of the "Carmen" to fit the prime donna's voice.

Three Cheers for Ida.

Ida St. Leon is to have the leading role in "The Argyle Case." This is a distinct departure for the clever young woman, who has heretofore played Hart photoplay being shown at the Burbank this week.

At one time more than 200 men and women were trapped in the burning building in the downtown. The only outlet at one end, their only means of escape, was shut off by the camera, which kept working as the fire progressed. The order to make a general exit came at a moment when most of the actors were no longer acting their fear, but were really frightened.

Never Say Die.
Nat Goodwin's contract with the Mirror Film Company of New York provides that the活 Nat shall not work on any day a prize fight is held."

Now Comes Buster.
"Buster" Collier is completing his performance in the spectacular war drama in which he will appear as a star under the direction of Thomas H. Ince. Buster is still leading cavalry charges down the mountainsides of Incerville, and his prowess astride the western charger that has been said to be the best of almost constant diversion among the cowpunchers and Indians of the plant.

Oho-o, Money!
BIG PURSES FOR HARNESS MEET.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACES BRING OUT MANY ENTRIES.

Matron's Stake of $16,000 will be Run off Again—Purses for Early Closing Events Total $12,000. Two-year-old Sweepstakes Race Promises to be Biggest Feature.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.
GRAND RAPIDS (Mich.) March 8.—Horses going to the post in the Grand Circuit harness meeting here next summer will step for purses totalling $25,000, according to the tentative programme arranged by Homer J. Kline, new secretary of the Furniture Driving Club, who arrived here today to fix the details of the meeting.

If the plans formulated by Mr. Kline materialize, the $16,000 matron's stake, which featured the meeting here last year, will be run off here again.

Purses for early closing events total $12,000. A down purse of $1000 for late closing events renew the tentative total to $25,000. Mr. Kline's plan calls for the following races:

The 2:07 or 2:08 trot, $5000 purse, renewal of furniture manufacturers' purse.

The 2:15 trot for $2000 purse.

The 2:10 or 2:12 pace, for $2000 purse.

Pace, not slower than 2:05, for $2000 purse.

Two-year-old trot, sweepstakes events horses must be named for this event by March 14.

STRUGGLE SLATED FOR VERNON A.C.

A toe-to-toe struggle is expected at the Vernon Athletic Club tonight, when Herb White of Stockton meets Louis Kline in the four-round main event. It will be White's first appearance in the local game, but he has fought and beaten the best of the present lightweight crop.

Jimmy Lauro and Joe Grimm, a round of which is 10-11 miles in the semi-windup and should put up a good battle. The first preliminary will be on its way by 8:30 o'clock, with Tommy McFarland preceding. Women will be admitted. The programme follows:

Ray Lillard vs. Sam Gruno, 154 pounds; Red Mathews vs. Fred McManus, 112 pounds; Frankie Dolan vs. Young Ugo, 158 pounds, and Walter Williams vs. Sammy Morris, 122 pounds.

MURKIN CHASE.

Redlands Looks Like a Possible Winner—Frost and Chestnut Slated to Pull Several First Places.

San Bernardino and Pomona boast Many Stars.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

REDLANDS, March 5.—The scrap for first place in the Citrus Belt League at the annual track meet to be held in San Bernardino this year will be the warmest ever, according to the dope sheet. Redlands has defeated both San Bernardino and Pomona by decisive scores in dual meets, but the dope shows that this does not give Redlands the lead pipe cinch in the meet. Riverside is not reckoned with, and Coach Gossell is sure to have some real fun for sure material out.

Cook of San Bernardino and Chestnut of Redlands may be the stars in the meet, and then again they may not.

According to the present dope each should be good about three but then there is Riverside, an unknown quantity, and the dope may be upset at any time. Frost of Redlands seems to have a pretty fair cinch on the distance events so far.

Cook Lutz is pleased with the show, and made a start San Bernardino, but it was not a great joy to him to see Cook walk away with the dashes. Alien, the Redlands standby, for the dashes will be trained to a fine point before the big meet. It seems that the team can run the race the same that Redlands can take the mile relay unless Riverside has some better runners than are looked for.

Cook Lutz says Redlands is due to win the meet this year, but he is not out long, but that his men are going to have to hump to pull down a victory. With San Bernardino and Pomona boasting some individual stars, and Riverside probably a few, Chaffey maybe two or three, it is hard to dope out just how the battle of San Bernardino has a good chance to win the pole vault and the high jump.

The meet is to be pulled off two weeks from Saturday and in the meantime there will be no loading in any of the camps of the citrus belt.

RAPID RISE.

Reaves Eason, Balboa's newest director, who went on as assistant a few weeks ago, has proven so clever and valuable that he has been placed in charge of a big five-reeler starring Lois Meredith and Frank Mayo.

"Registered" Real Star.

San Diego aspires to be the yachting center of the Pacific Coast this year and is planning to hold an international regatta for both motor boats and yachts this summer.

Oho-o, Money!
BOWLING NOTES.

Mrs. Guy L. Lapham and her partner, L. C. Tamm, are the winners of the women's division, now in progress at the Melodic Alley. The second division of the men's division is still in progress. Mr. and Mrs. Neelson didn't bowl last week, but L. C. Tamm and his partner, G. O. Lapham, is in the lead for the open series.

J. Otterson, who is the Melodic Alley's vice-president, is the men's division champion.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the men's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Neelson are the winners of the ## Cities and Towns South of Tehachepi's Top—Los Angeles County News.

Long Beach.
STIRS TEMPEST
AT LONG BEACH.

Meeting Over Harbor
Beds Develops Near-riot.

Local Speakers Call Each Other Liars and Seek Fight.

Senate Favors Releasing Funds for Immediate Use.

WIDE WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
LONG BEACH, March 6.—Police are compelled to restore order at one of the liveliest and most tempestuous mass meetings held in this city, tonight.
More than 500 persons gathered in the auditorium to discuss the release of $50,000 of the funds voted by the Senate virtually to help the construction of a company in the field, the members were and in their and giving the proper attention.

10-20-30
LAW THAT IS TOWN TALK

Collier
D GUY

10c-15c-25c

HART
HINGES

40c

ing over

y taking certifying
attack?

the French

war cor-
the Allies'

e

10c-15c-25c

COLLIER
D GUY

10c-15c-25c

HART
HINGES

40c

ing over

y taking certifying
attack?

the French

war cor-
the Allies'

e

10c-15c-25c

COLLIER
D GUY

10c-15c-25c

HART
HINGES

40c

ing over

y taking certifying
attack?

the French

war cor-
the Allies'

e

10c-15c-25c

COLLIER
D GUY

10c-15c-25c

HART
HINGES

40c

ing over

y taking certifying
attack?

the French

war cor-
the Allies'

e

10c-15c-25c

COLLIER
D GUY

10c-15c-25c

HART
HINGES

40c

ing over

y taking certifying
attack?

the French

war cor-
the Allies'

e

10c-15c-25c

COLLIER
D GUY

10c-15c-25c

HART
HINGES

40c

ing over

y taking certifying
attack?

the French

war cor-
the Allies'

e

10c-15c-25c

COLLIER
D GUY

10c-15c-25c

HART
HINGES

40c

ing over

y taking certifying
attack?

the French

war cor-
the Allies'

e

10c-15c-25c

COLLIER
D GUY

10c-15c-25c

HART
HINGES

40c

ing over

y taking certifying
attack?

the French

war cor-
the Allies'

e

10c-15c-25c

COLLIER
D GUY

10c-15c-25c

HART
HINGES

40c

ing over

y taking certifying
attack?

the French

war cor-
the Allies'

e

10c-15c-25c

COLLIER
D GUY

10c-15c-25c

HART
HINGES

40c

ing over

y taking certifying
attack?

the French

war cor-
the Allies'

e

10c-15c-25c

COLLIER
D GUY

10c-15c-25c

HART
HINGES

40c

ing over

y taking certifying
attack?

the French

war cor-
the Allies'

e

10c-15c-25c

COLLIER
D GUY

10c-15c-25c

HART
HINGES

40c

ing over

y taking certifying
attack?

the French

war cor-
the Allies'

e

10c-15c-25c

COLLIER
D GUY

10c-15c-25c

HART
HINGES

40c

ing over

y taking certifying
attack?

the French

war cor-
the Allies'

e

10c-15c-25c

COLLIER
D GUY

10c-15c-25c

HART
HINGES

40c

ing over

y taking certifying
attack?

the French

war cor-
the Allies'

e

10c-15c-25c

COLLIER
D GUY

10c-15c-25c

HART
HINGES

40c

ing over

y taking certifying
attack?

the French

war cor-
the Allies'

e

10c-15c-25c

COLLIER
D GUY

10c-15c-25c

HART
HINGES

40c

ing over

y taking certifying
attack?

the French

war cor-
the Allies'

e

10c-15c-25c

COLLIER
D GUY

10c-15c-25c

HART
HINGES

40c

ing over

y taking certifying
attack?

the French

war cor-
the Allies'

e

10c-15c-25c

COLLIER
D GUY

10c-15c-25c

HART
HINGES

40c

ing over

y taking certifying
attack?

the French

war cor-
the Allies'

Business: Money, Stocks, Bonds—Trade—Local Produce Market—Citrus Markets

Stocks and Bonds.

PROFESSIONALS ON TOP
IN SPECULATIVE MARKET.

Country Orders are Extremely Scarce Until Near the Closing When Buying of Steel Sends a Great Portion of the List to Higher Levels—Sugar Shares Advance Twelve Points on Stiff Demand.

(By A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW YORK, March 6.—Aside from further noteworthy January returns were submitted by leading railroads, the New York Stock Exchange reported a net gain of $20,000,000, "the $272,000, and Great Northern $272,000. Bonds were moderately active and steady with total sales, par value of $28,000,000. United States bonds were unchanged on the list.

STOCK SALES COMPARED.

BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.] NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, March 6.—Following is a table of today's stock and bond sales:

COMPARISON OF STOCK SALES.

Total sales, March 6, 1916. . . . . $ 2,629,000 Total sales of stock last year . . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales of stocks in 1915 . . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1914 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

COMPARISON OF STOCK SALES.

Total sales, March 6, 1916. . . . . $ 2,629,000 Total sales of stocks in 1915 . . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1914 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1915. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1914 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1914. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1913 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1912. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1911 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1910. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1909 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1908. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1907 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1906. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1905 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1904. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1903 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1902. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1901 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1900. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1900 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1899. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1898 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1898. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1897 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1896. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1895 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1894. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1893 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1892. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1891 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1890. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1889 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1888. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1887 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1886. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1885 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1884. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1883 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1882. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1881 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1880. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1879 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1878. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1877 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1876. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1875 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1874. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1873 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1872. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1871 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1870. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1869 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1868. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1867 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1866. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1865 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1864. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1863 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1862. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1861 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1860. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1859 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1858. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1857 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1856. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1855 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1854. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1853 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1852. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1851 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1850. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1849 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1848. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1847 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1846. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1845 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1844. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1843 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1842. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1841 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1840. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1839 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1838. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1837 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1836. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1835 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1834. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1833 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1832. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1831 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1830. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1829 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1828. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1827 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1826. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1825 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1824. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1823 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1822. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1821 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1820. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1819 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1818. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1817 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1816. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1815 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1814. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1813 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1812. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1811 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1810. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1809 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1808. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1807 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1806. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1805 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1804. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1803 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1802. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1801 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1800. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1800 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1798. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1797 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1796. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1795 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1794. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1793 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1792. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1791 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1790. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1789 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1788. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1787 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1786. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1785 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1784. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1783 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1782. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1781 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1780. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1779 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1778. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1777 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1776. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1775 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1774. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1773 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1772. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1771 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1770. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1769 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1768. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1767 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1766. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1765 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1764. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1763 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1762. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1761 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1760. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1759 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1758. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1757 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1756. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1755 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1754. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in 1753 . . . . . $ 2,624,000

Total sales, March 6, 1752. . . . . $ 2,624,000 Total sales in

Public Service: City Hall, Courts.

At the Courthouse.

FIGHT FOR FREEDOM OF MISS CLAYBURGH.LAWYERS PICK FLAWS IN THE SEATTLE COMPLAINT.

Stylishly Gowned, the Handsome Young Woman Accused of Complicity in Blackmail Plot Appears in Court with Petition for Release on Habeas Corpus Writ.

Miss Isabel Clayburgh, the handsome young blonde wanted in Seattle, on charges of attempted blackmail, was not released yesterday afternoon on habeas corpus proceedings, nor was she sent north with Deputy Sheriff Hally of King county, Washington. Judge Wilbur granted a continuance of the hearing of the writ, indefinitely asking the northern official what time the trial for Seattle left Los Angeles.

A copy of the complaint against Miss Clayburgh arrived from the north by registered mail yesterday and was presented to court by Deputy District Attorney Seppi. Attorneys for the defendant in the action asked time to study the complaint, and declared on a superficial examination that the girl would be released because of defects in the wording of the paper, which allows conspiracy to blackmail. This, it was argued, does not constitute a valid legal charge as she is the only one formally named.

The allegations as set forth are to the effect that Miss Clayburgh, Mrs. P. Siegel and Miss Lillian Peterson conspired to blackmail S. L. Silverman and "others," whose names are not mentioned, by means of photographs of "nude and naked women" and the complaining witness.

Miss Clayburgh, who in court both morning and afternoon, in the morning, her principal attorney could not be present, continuance was granted on this account until afternoon. She was modestly dressed in black and wore a large neck society blouse. Her gowns, girdles and hat were handsome creations.

During the day the Sheriff's office received an anonymous telephone call stating that Miss Dottis Coots, who is wanted as witness in the forthcoming trial in Seattle, and who has not been mentioned as an associate of Miss Clayburgh, is living in Pasadena. Directions as to her residence were also offered. Deputy Sheriffs Fox and Noland investigated, but failed to locate the woman.

MARRITAL TANGLES.
STRUGGLE FOR RELEASE.

Two wives and one husband sought by legal proceedings yesterday to prove the fact that Miss George E. Hanson and Shields W. Lawson filing an alimony suit and Beulah McCall asking for separate maintenance.

Mrs. Hanson says she married Vernon J. Hanson at San Diego, March 20, 1914, and alleges she did not know of the previous marriage of Mr. Hanson until December 25, 1915. The former marriage is still in force, she claims. When she discovered her own marriage was illegal, she says, she left her husband. One daughter was born, Meredith Hanson, who is 4 years old. For support Mrs. Hanson asks $12 a month.

Shields W. Lawson married Florence Morse in this city January 12, 1915, and they separated February 19, last. The alleged cause was a former wife living, the union not being dissolved. At the time of his marriage to Miss Morse, Mr. Lawson claims, he believed his former marriage had been dissolved.

Mr. Beulah McCall's suit is against William N. McCall, W. H. McCall and William N. McCall, Jr. McCall in this city September 26, 1912, and they separated December 20, 1915. She alleges he deserted her, and further charges him with failure to provide.

The court is asked to restrain Mr. Morse from paying money or transferring property to his son, Mr. McCall. It is alleged that Mr. Morse has $200 in his possession; also, that the community property is controlled by Mr. McCall. Mrs. McCall asks an allowance of $40 a month and a division of the community property.

MENTALLY ILL.
FOR INVESTIGATION.

The legal battle for the mental and physical freedom of Mrs. Lottie O'Banion, which began when Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Simpson swore out an insanity complaint against her, was again in court yesterday.

In the hearing on the Simpson charge, Mrs. O'Banion was paroled, and subsequently the case against her was dismissed. The action was brought, the Simpson state, because they believed that Mrs. O'Banion was not being treated right.

Judge Dohy, before whom the case came on the complaint of Dr. Park, yesterday, paroled Mrs. O'Banion to the parochial probation officer, holding that she was mentally ill, but not dangerously insane. When her husband is prepared to receive her, the court's order is that he will have custody.

Attorney Frank S. Sutton, representing Mrs. O'Banion, stated that he will attempt to release her on habeas corpus proceedings.

GALLANTRY.

BEARING OF A SOLDIER.

There was nothing in the attitude of C. M. Jenkins, a Civil War veteran, in the divorce court yesterday, to indicate that after forty-seven years of married life there had come a parting of the ways. Mrs. Jenkins is suing for divorce on the ground of

A REAL
DRESS FORM.

Just think of the pleasure you would derive in sewing on one of the spiffy new dress forms. See yourself as others see you. Drape, fit and finish every-thing without the bore of trying on yourself. An exact reproduction of your own figure. Adjustable for the use of others. We also have adjustable ready-made forms all sizes and sizes. We are manufacturers of high-grade dress forms and our prices are 50 per cent. lower than you can buy elsewhere. See models, Suite 304—Lunkenbach Bldg., 317 S. Hill Street.

NATURE FORM CO.
Chicago, 200 Marshall Field Annex
San Francisco, 177 Post St.

desertion. She complains that although Mr. Jenkins is wealthy, he should not properly provide for her. Both have reached the allotted age of threescore years and ten.

When her case was called in the alimony court, Mr. Jenkins stood by his wife's side, and when the court had agreed to the agreement of the couple that he is to pay her $25 a month until the further order of the court, he escorted her to a seat.

On the order of the court, Mr. Jenkins was given an order to show cause as to why he was not before Judge Finlayson. The case was sent back to the presiding judge, who transferred it to Judge Myers, who will hear it on the 22nd.

Mr. Jenkins' attorney, Mr. Hughes, restored the article to Mrs. Jenkins in the courtroom.

MISS ISABEL CLAYBURGH.

Stylishly Gowned, the Handsome Young Woman Accused of Complicity in Blackmail Plot Appears in Court with Petition for Release on Habeas Corpus Writ.

Miss Isabel Clayburgh, the handsome young blonde wanted in Seattle, on charges of attempted blackmail, was not released yesterday afternoon on habeas corpus proceedings, nor was she sent north with Deputy Sheriff Hally of King county, Washington. Judge Wilbur granted a continuance of the hearing of the writ, indefinitely asking the northern official what time the trial for Seattle left Los Angeles.

A copy of the complaint against Miss Clayburgh arrived from the north by registered mail yesterday and was presented to court by Deputy District Attorney Seppi. Attorneys for the defendant in the action asked time to study the complaint, and declared on a superficial examination that the girl would be released because of defects in the wording of the paper, which allows conspiracy to blackmail. This, it was argued, does not constitute a valid legal charge as she is the only one formally named.

The allegations as set forth are to the effect that Miss Clayburgh, Mrs. P. Siegel and Miss Lillian Peterson conspired to blackmail S. L. Silverman and "others," whose names are not mentioned, by means of photographs of "nude and naked women" and the complaining witness.

Miss Clayburgh, who in court both morning and afternoon, in the morning, her principal attorney could not be present, continuance was granted on this account until afternoon. She was modestly dressed in black and wore a large neck society blouse. Her gowns, girdles and hat were handsome creations.

During the day the Sheriff's office received an anonymous telephone call stating that Miss Dottis Coots, who is wanted as witness in the forthcoming trial in Seattle, and who has not been mentioned as an associate of Miss Clayburgh, is living in Pasadena. Directions as to her residence were also offered. Deputy Sheriffs Fox and Noland investigated, but failed to locate the woman.

MARRITAL TANGLES.
STRUGGLE FOR RELEASE.

Two wives and one husband sought by legal proceedings yesterday to prove the fact that Miss George E. Hanson and Shields W. Lawson filing an alimony suit and Beulah McCall asking for separate maintenance.

Mrs. Hanson says she married Vernon J. Hanson at San Diego, March 20, 1914, and alleges she did not know of the previous marriage of Mr. Hanson until December 25, 1915. The former marriage is still in force, she claims. When she discovered her own marriage was illegal, she says, she left her husband. One daughter was born, Meredith Hanson, who is 4 years old. For support Mrs. Hanson asks $12 a month.

Shields W. Lawson married Florence Morse in this city January 12, 1915, and they separated February 19, last. The alleged cause was a former wife living, the union not being dissolved. At the time of his marriage to Miss Morse, Mr. Lawson claims, he believed his former marriage had been dissolved.

Mr. Beulah McCall's suit is against William N. McCall, W. H. McCall and William N. McCall, Jr. McCall in this city September 26, 1912, and they separated December 20, 1915. She alleges he deserted her, and further charges him with failure to provide.

The court is asked to restrain Mr. Morse from paying money or transferring property to his son, Mr. McCall. It is alleged that Mr. Morse has $200 in his possession; also, that the community property is controlled by Mr. McCall. Mrs. McCall asks an allowance of $40 a month and a division of the community property.

MENTALLY ILL.
FOR INVESTIGATION.

The legal battle for the mental and physical freedom of Mrs. Lottie O'Banion, which began when Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Simpson swore out an insanity complaint against her, was again in court yesterday.

In the hearing on the Simpson charge, Mrs. O'Banion was paroled, and subsequently the case against her was dismissed. The action was brought, the Simpson state, because they believed that Mrs. O'Banion was not being treated right.

Judge Dohy, before whom the case came on the complaint of Dr. Park, yesterday, paroled Mrs. O'Banion to the parochial probation officer, holding that she was mentally ill, but not dangerously insane. When her husband is prepared to receive her, the court's order is that he will have custody.

Attorney Frank S. Sutton, representing Mrs. O'Banion, stated that he will attempt to release her on habeas corpus proceedings.

GALLANTRY.

BEARING OF A SOLDIER.

There was nothing in the attitude of C. M. Jenkins, a Civil War veteran, in the divorce court yesterday, to indicate that after forty-seven years of married life there had come a parting of the ways. Mrs. Jenkins is suing for divorce on the ground of

DISQUALIFIED.
GOES TO ANOTHER COURT.

Because his wife owns stock in the Union Oil Company, Judge Finlayson announced yesterday that he is not a fit judge to preside over the injunction suit of E. W. Billan and other stockholders against the Stewart family, to restrain them from voting stock at the annual meeting, April 20.

The action was taken in order to show cause as to why he was not before Judge Finlayson. The case was sent back to the presiding judge, who transferred it to Judge Myers, who will hear it on the 22nd.

Mr. Jenkins' attorney, Mr. Hughes, restored the article to Mrs. Jenkins in the courtroom.

MISS ISABEL CLAYBURGH.

Stylishly Gowned, the Handsome Young Woman Accused of Complicity in Blackmail Plot Appears in Court with Petition for Release on Habeas Corpus Writ.

Miss Isabel Clayburgh, the handsome young blonde wanted in Seattle, on charges of attempted blackmail, was not released yesterday afternoon on habeas corpus proceedings, nor was she sent north with Deputy Sheriff Hally of King county, Washington. Judge Wilbur granted a continuance of the hearing of the writ, indefinitely asking the northern official what time the trial for Seattle left Los Angeles.

A copy of the complaint against Miss Clayburgh arrived from the north by registered mail yesterday and was presented to court by Deputy District Attorney Seppi. Attorneys for the defendant in the action asked time to study the complaint, and declared on a superficial examination that the girl would be released because of defects in the wording of the paper, which allows conspiracy to blackmail. This, it was argued, does not constitute a valid legal charge as she is the only one formally named.

The allegations as set forth are to the effect that Miss Clayburgh, Mrs. P. Siegel and Miss Lillian Peterson conspired to blackmail S. L. Silverman and "others," whose names are not mentioned, by means of photographs of "nude and naked women" and the complaining witness.

Miss Clayburgh, who in court both morning and afternoon, in the morning, her principal attorney could not be present, continuance was granted on this account until afternoon. She was modestly dressed in black and wore a large neck society blouse. Her gowns, girdles and hat were handsome creations.

During the day the Sheriff's office received an anonymous telephone call stating that Miss Dottis Coots, who is wanted as witness in the forthcoming trial in Seattle, and who has not been mentioned as an associate of Miss Clayburgh, is living in Pasadena. Directions as to her residence were also offered. Deputy Sheriffs Fox and Noland investigated, but failed to locate the woman.

MARRITAL TANGLES.
STRUGGLE FOR RELEASE.

Two wives and one husband sought by legal proceedings yesterday to prove the fact that Miss George E. Hanson and Shields W. Lawson filing an alimony suit and Beulah McCall asking for separate maintenance.

Mrs. Hanson says she married Vernon J. Hanson at San Diego, March 20, 1914, and alleges she did not know of the previous marriage of Mr. Hanson until December 25, 1915. The former marriage is still in force, she claims. When she discovered her own marriage was illegal, she says, she left her husband. One daughter was born, Meredith Hanson, who is 4 years old. For support Mrs. Hanson asks $12 a month.

Shields W. Lawson married Florence Morse in this city January 12, 1915, and they separated February 19, last. The alleged cause was a former wife living, the union not being dissolved. At the time of his marriage to Miss Morse, Mr. Lawson claims, he believed his former marriage had been dissolved.

Mr. Beulah McCall's suit is against William N. McCall, W. H. McCall and William N. McCall, Jr. McCall in this city September 26, 1912, and they separated December 20, 1915. She alleges he deserted her, and further charges him with failure to provide.

The court is asked to restrain Mr. Morse from paying money or transferring property to his son, Mr. McCall. It is alleged that Mr. Morse has $200 in his possession; also, that the community property is controlled by Mr. McCall. Mrs. McCall asks an allowance of $40 a month and a division of the community property.

MENTALLY ILL.
FOR INVESTIGATION.

The legal battle for the mental and physical freedom of Mrs. Lottie O'Banion, which began when Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Simpson swore out an insanity complaint against her, was again in court yesterday.

In the hearing on the Simpson charge, Mrs. O'Banion was paroled, and subsequently the case against her was dismissed. The action was brought, the Simpson state, because they believed that Mrs. O'Banion was not being treated right.

Judge Dohy, before whom the case came on the complaint of Dr. Park, yesterday, paroled Mrs. O'Banion to the parochial probation officer, holding that she was mentally ill, but not dangerously insane. When her husband is prepared to receive her, the court's order is that he will have custody.

Attorney Frank S. Sutton, representing Mrs. O'Banion, stated that he will attempt to release her on habeas corpus proceedings.

GALLANTRY.

BEARING OF A SOLDIER.

There was nothing in the attitude of C. M. Jenkins, a Civil War veteran, in the divorce court yesterday, to indicate that after forty-seven years of married life there had come a parting of the ways. Mrs. Jenkins is suing for divorce on the ground of

MUNICIPAL PHONES
URGED ON COUNCIL.

BOND ISSUE ASKED BY IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION.

Local Federation Proposes an Initiative Petition Unless the Council Institutes Proceedings for Condemnation of Sunset Lines and Suggests Bond Issue.

Proposing an initiative ordinance for lower rates and uniform service by municipal ownership, in case the Council does not adopt a plan for taking over the Sunset telephone system at the expiration of its franchise, the Federated Improvement Association made a resolution with the Council yesterday. The association, through its special committee, informs the Council that with the expiration of the company's franchise next November, the company will have no corporate rights within the city and would, therefore be compelled to remove its wires and poles within the city unless it can obtain a new franchise or sell its property either to the city or to the Home company.

The resolution says that at the expiration of the franchise the city can obtain the property without paying for franchise rights, going concern and severance damages.

The Council is requested to institute the necessary proceedings to the State Railroad Commission for the condemnation of the company's property, and prepare for the necessary bond issuance on the property and obtain the franchise of the city, as provided for by law in case the city's bonds are for the purchase of self-supporting public utilities. It is further resolved that the City Attorney be instructed to notify the public through the press, as to the powers and rights of the people in the case.

Proposing an initiative ordinance for lower rates and uniform service by municipal ownership, in case the Council does not adopt a plan for taking over the Sunset telephone system at the expiration of its franchise, the Federated Improvement Association made a resolution with the Council yesterday. The association, through its special committee, informs the Council that with the expiration of the company's franchise next November, the company will have no corporate rights within the city and would, therefore be compelled to remove its wires and poles within the city unless it can obtain a new franchise or sell its property either to the city or to the Home company.

The resolution says that at the expiration of the franchise the city can obtain the property without paying for franchise rights, going concern and severance damages.

The Council is requested to institute the necessary proceedings to the State Railroad Commission for the condemnation of the company's property, and prepare for the necessary bond issuance on the property and obtain the franchise of the city, as provided for by law in case the city's bonds are for the purchase of self-supporting public utilities. It is further resolved that the City Attorney be instructed to notify the public through the press, as to the powers and rights of the people in the case.

Proposing an initiative ordinance for lower rates and uniform service by municipal ownership, in case the Council does not adopt a plan for taking over the Sunset telephone system at the expiration of its franchise, the Federated Improvement Association made a resolution with the Council yesterday. The association, through its special committee, informs the Council that with the expiration of the company's franchise next November, the company will have no corporate rights within the city and would, therefore be compelled to remove its wires and poles within the city unless it can obtain a new franchise or sell its property either to the city or to the Home company.

The resolution says that at the expiration of the franchise the city can obtain the property without paying for franchise rights, going concern and severance damages.

The Council is requested to institute the necessary proceedings to the State Railroad Commission for the condemnation of the company's property, and prepare for the necessary bond issuance on the property and obtain the franchise of the city, as provided for by law in case the city's bonds are for the purchase of self-supporting public utilities. It is further resolved that the City Attorney be instructed to notify the public through the press, as to the powers and rights of the people in the case.

Proposing an initiative ordinance for lower rates and uniform service by municipal ownership, in case the Council does not adopt a plan for taking over the Sunset telephone system at the expiration of its franchise, the Federated Improvement Association made a resolution with the Council yesterday. The association, through its special committee, informs the Council that with the expiration of the company's franchise next November, the company will have no corporate rights within the city and would, therefore be compelled to remove its wires and poles within the city unless it can obtain a new franchise or sell its property either to the city or to the Home company.

The resolution says that at the expiration of the franchise the city can obtain the property without paying for franchise rights, going concern and severance damages.

The Council is requested to institute the necessary proceedings to the State Railroad Commission for the condemnation of the company's property, and prepare for the necessary bond issuance on the property and obtain the franchise of the city, as provided for by law in case the city's bonds are for the purchase of self-supporting public utilities. It is further resolved that the City Attorney be instructed to notify the public through the press, as to the powers and rights of the people in the